The Institute for Scientific Information, the pioneering information people, wanted more college and research librarians to be aware of their services. A film seemed the most practical answer to accomplish this objective. By combining the talents of some ISI services with the exciting world of color, an interesting, informative, swiftly-paced film resulted. If your organization would like to screen this 36-minute, 16 mm sound and color film, attach the coupon below (or a copy of it) to your letterhead. No charge, of course, we'd like everyone to see the film.

To Provide Today's Researcher in the Humanities, Social Science, and Religion with the Basic Researches of the Past

The first eighteen titles in Gale's LITERARY AND HISTORICAL DICTIONARY SERIES included the incomparable and highly-acclaimed Dictionary of English Literature; Dictionary of Names, Nicknames, and Surnames; 5000 Facts and Fancies; and Handy-Book of Literary Curiosities.

Now, a group of equally distinguished titles is being republished as Part II of the series. Each makes a special contribution to the fund of hard-to-find information that can augment full comprehension of a fact of history, a reference in literature, a social custom, an obscure phrase, or a nickname—the subject range is virtually limitless.
