Who says an official journal has to be dull? Not the new AL editor, who brings two Educational Press Association Awards of his own to add to the six that AL won last year.

There'll be plenty of hard news in AL these hard times. Isn't it good news that you can subscribe for your library by just checking the form below?

It's hard to keep cool at a time of rising subscription costs and dwindling serials budgets. Especially when researchers keep asking you to add more journals.

But it doesn't have to be that way. With Current Contents® you can increase your journal coverage without overrunning your budget.

Designed primarily for individual use, CC® is the most widely used current awareness service in the world with thousands of regular subscribers. And more and more of these subscribers are librarians who have discovered that having CC available is almost as good as having the actual journals to circulate—but at a much lower cost.

How does Current Contents work?

Each of CC's 6 editions covers about 1,000 journals from the broad disciplinary areas listed below. The top journals in the field. Journals from all over the world. By reproducing their tables of contents, Current Contents gives you bibliographic control of each of these journals. And CC gives researchers precise but easy access to the new articles they need through each issue's Author Index, Journal Index, and Weekly Subject Index.

With Current Contents you're also assured that you can quickly get any article requested. When all other means fail, just mail the citation to ISI®'s OATS® (Original Article Tear Sheet) service. For as little as $2.50 the article you need will be torn from the original journal and mailed to you within 24 hours after receipt of your request.

Most of the 32 cumulations are already in print; the remainder will be published by the end of 1974. (Cumulations may be purchased separately—prices furnished on request.)

Without the cumulations of additions and changes through 1973 (or the previous Gale cumulations), catalogers and technical services librarians wishing to check current LC cataloging practice in a subject area would have to search in as many as 45 different sources. Gale's latest series of 32 cumulations of material from LC's quarterly Additions and Changes includes: 1. All material in Gale's first series of cumulations, which covered all changes and additions from the latest edition of each schedule through 1970; 2. The Gale cumulations of 1971-72 changes; 3. The previously uncumulated 1973 quarterly additions and changes. Thus, each of the 32 cumulations contains all changes and additions for a particular schedule through 1973, in one sequence within one binding. ISBN 0-8103-0765-0.

Full set of 32 cumulations, $650.00. Each additional set, $375.00.
