NCLIS, Suite 3122, 7th & D St., S.W., Washington, DC 20024. Multiple copies are available from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office.

• Telecommunications in ARL Libraries, SPEC Kit #98 (October 1983, 129 pages), contains two documents on networks, seven on interconnection among libraries, one on gateways/links, and two on standards, plus a short list of references. The flyer discusses local systems, interconnection, standards, and trends. Single copies may be purchased for $15, with checks made payable to the ARL Office of Management Studies, from the SPEC Center, ARL/OMS, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

• Two new Topics in Personnel kits have been issued by ALA's Office for Library Personnel Services. Kit #4, Humanizing the Work Place: Quality of Work Life in Libraries, deals with such topics as part-time employment, alternative work schedules, and job enrichment. Kit #5, Administering Staff Cutbacks: Planning and Implementing a Reduction in Force, offers suggestions on dealing with outplacement and retrenchment. Both kits include reprints of relevant articles and specially prepared bibliographies. They may be ordered for $10 each (prepaid) from ALA/OLPR, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611.

BI POSTER SESSIONS NEEDED

The national LOEX Clearinghouse on Library Instruction has issued a call for abstracts for BI-related poster sessions, to be held in conjunction with the 13th National LOEX Library Instruction Conference on May 3-4, 1984.

The theme of the Conference is “Marketing Instructional Services: Applying Private Sector Techniques to Plan and Promote Bibliographic Instruction.” Poster session presentations will include graphs, pictures, diagrams and narrative text and will allow presenters to expand informally and answer questions relating to marketing BI services on their own campuses. Sessions can also report research findings and describe innovative marketing techniques. Each session will be scheduled for an hour.

Guidelines for the submission of abstracts and forms can be obtained by writing to the LOEX Clearinghouse, Eastern Michigan University Library, Ypsilanti, MI 48197; (313) 487-0168. The deadline for submitting abstracts for consideration is March 1, 1984.

CALENDAR

January

17–May—Continuing Education: The University of Toronto is offering ten continuing education courses of varying times and costs in its Spring Term 1984 schedule. Subjects include: legal information sources; U.S. Government publications; labor relations in libraries; time management; and disaster planning. For details, write: Faculty of Library and Information Science, University of Toronto, 140 St. George Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5S 1A1.

February

22–25—Music Libraries: Annual Conference of the Music Library Association, Villa Capri Motel, Austin, Texas. Scheduled sessions include: planning music library buildings and facilities, grantsmanship, resources and collection development, and historical bibliography. A Preconference on “Computer Education for the Music Librarian” will be held on February 20–21. Contact: Olga Buth, Fine Arts Library, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712; (512) 471-4777.
28—March 1—Academic Libraries: "Contemporary Issues in Academic and Research Libraries," the Fifth International Conference, will be held at the Hilton Hotel, Boulder, Colorado. The conference is intended to help identify issues for attention and to promote a continuing review process involving the academic information community. Limited to 200 participants. Fee: $200. See the inside back cover of this issue for more information. Contact: Fifth International Conference, University Library and Learning Resources, California State University, Long Beach, CA 90840; (213) 498-4047.

March
26-28—Conservation: Conservation workshop at the Mississippi Department of Archives and History, Jackson, sponsored by the Society of American Archivists. The program includes lectures, discussions, and hands-on practice. The limited enrollment is confined to those currently holding a position in a manuscript or archival repository with little or no previous training in conservation. Fee: $75. Contact: SAA, 600 S. Federal, Suite 504, Chicago, IL 60605.

April

May
3-4—Bibliographic Instruction: 13th National Library Instruction Conference, "Marketing Instructional Services: Applying Private Sector Techniques to Plan and Promote Bibliographic Instruction," at the Hoyt Conference Center, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti. The conference will include formal presentations, poster sessions, practical working sessions, and expanded exhibit and display programs. Registration: $125 for LOEX members. Contact: Carolyn Kirkendall, Director, LOEX Clearinghouse, Eastern Michigan University Library, Ypsilanti, MI 48197; (313) 487-0168.
6-18—Administration: 18th annual Library Administrators Development Program, sponsored by the University of Maryland's College of Library and Information Services, will be held at the Donaldson Brown Center, Port Deposit, Maryland. Participants will include senior administrative personnel of large library systems of all types, from North America and abroad. Seminar sessions will concentrate on the principal administrative issues which senior managers encounter. Contact: Effie Knight, Administrative Assistant, Library Administrators Development Program, College of Library and Information Services, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20742.

20-23—Microcomputers: 13th ASIS Mid-Year Meeting, “The Micro Revolution: Implications for the Information Age,” Indiana University, Bloomington. Topics to be discussed include: information generation, social aspects, technological developments, and information access. Contact: ASIS, 1010 16th St., N.W., Washington, DC 20036; (202) 659-3644.

THE CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified Advertising Dep’t, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611; (312) 944-6780.

Classified advertisements are $4.00 per line for ACRL members, $5.00 for others. Late job notices are $10.00 per line for members, $12.00 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status.

Editors: Classified advertisements are $4.00 per line for ACRL members, $5.00 for others. Late job notices are $10.00 per line for members, $12.00 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status.

Classified Advertising Dep’t, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611; (312) 944-6780.

FOR SALE

POSITIONS OPEN

ASSISTANT ENGINEERING LIBRARIAN (search re-opened). Requirements: MLS (ALA-accredited). Minimum of 2 years of professional experience, preferably in an engineering or science/technology library. Desired qualifications: educational background or experience in engineering or science helpful. Exposure to or background in automated library procedures; supervisory experience or aptitude; experience in bibliographic instruction to large classes; ability to deal effectively with faculty and students; computer-based searching and reference experience helpful. Shares in management and operation of the Siegsmund Engineering Library. Active participation in planning and implementation of new services and procedures and development of policies. Direct responsibility for circulation and technical services including training and supervision of staff and students. Conducts bibliographic instruction and assists with library orientation tours. Faculty status and responsibilities. Rank commensurate with education and experience. Promotion and tenure require meeting standards of excellence in librarianship, publishing, research, and service. 12 month appointment with annual vacation of 22 days. Group Life, Major Medical and disability insurance are in effect as are TIAA-CREF and Social Security. Salary: $15,000 and up depending upon qualifications. Application deadline: January 30, 1984. Send resume and list of references to: Thomas L. Ha-worth, Personnel Officer, Libraries, Stewart Center, Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN 47907. An equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

ASSISTANT HEAD ACQUISITIONS LIBRARIAN in the Brown University Library. Responsible for the management of processes related to the purchase of monographic library materials and assists with the management of the Acquisitions Department. Requirements: MLS degree from an ALA-accredited library school; reading knowledge of two foreign languages (one Germanic and one Romance) and familiarity with one additional language, 3 years of technical services experience in an academic library, including acquisitions and bibliographic searching; experience with library and business automated systems and networks. Appointment range: $17,553—$23,016, based on experience. Interested candidates should send letter of application, resume and names of three references by December 31, 1983, to: Gloria Hagberg, Brown University Library, Providence, RI 02912. An equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD, ORIGINAL MONOGRAPHS CATALOGING. Primary responsibility for assisting the head of the department in general administrative and supervisory duties, including training and revising staff doing original cataloging. Incumbent participates in formulation and communication of cataloging policy and procedure and in the development and maintenance of the cataloging manual. May perform some original cataloging. Incumbent has a catalog editing responsibility, including editing problems outside the department and may also work on general bibliographic projects. The Original Monographs Cataloging Department provides original (and selected LC) cataloging for all separately classified monographs in the system with the exception of Law, Health Sciences, and East Asian vernacular. The staff of the unit consists of the full-time equivalent of 16 catalogers, 3 support staff, and a departmental assistant. Requirements include MLS, requirements are a thorough command of cataloging techniques and principles as demonstrated through several years of substantial cataloging experience in a large research or academic library, reading knowledge of at least 2 foreign languages, ability to work effectively with professional and supporting staff. Preference will be given to candidates with previous administrative and/or supervisory experience. Experience with automated cataloging desirable. Salary ranges: Librarian II: $20,500—$26,650; Librarian III: $23,500—$34,075. Submit resume, listing salary requirements and 3 references, to: Box 35, Butler Library, Columbia University Libraries, 535 West 114th Street, New York, NY 10027. Deadline for applications is January 13, 1984. An equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

ASSISTANT VETERINARY MEDICAL LIBRARIAN (re-post). The Flower Veterinary Library at the New York State College of Veterinary Medicine at Cornell University is seeking applicants for the position of Assistant Veterinary Medical Librarian. Responsibilities include: providing general medical reference services; conducting computerized bibliographic database searches (NLM, BRSG, DIALOG), assisting in user education and orientation programs; coordinating inter-library loan activities; assisting with collection management and technical processing; maintaining card catalogs; and special projects. Qualifications include MLS from an ALA-accredited library school; health or life science background preferred; public services experience in a bio-medical library and knowledge of online literature searching desirable. Strong communication and interpersonal skills required. Salary $15,000 +, depending on qualifications and experience. Closing date for applications: December 30, 1983. Position available: February 1, 1984. Send resume and letter of application to: Carolyn A. Pythila, Personnel Director, Cornell University Li-