Deadline: Orders for regular classified advertisements must reach the ACRL office on or before the second of the month preceding publication of the issue (e.g., September for the October issue). Should this date fall on a weekend or holiday, ads will be accepted on the next business day. Late job listings will be accepted on a space-available basis after the second of the month.

Rates: Classified advertisements are $7.10 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $9.00 for others. Rates are $17.25 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $20.50 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status. Display ad rates range from $320 to $610 based upon size. Please call for sizes and rates.

Guidelines: For ads that list an application deadline, we suggest that date be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary range per policy of the American Library Association (ALA). Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

Internet: C&RL News classified ads are now accessible on the Internet through the gopher server at the University of Illinois at Chicago. Ads will be placed on the gopher approximately 2-3 weeks before the printed edition of C&RL News is published. To reach C&RL NewsNet you can locate the University of Illinois at Chicago in the menu of all servers maintained on gopher at the University of Minnesota. Alternatively, you can connect your favorite gopher client directly to host “gopher.uic.edu 70”. Select “The Library” from the menu and then select “C&RL NewsNet” from the next menu.

DIRECTOR OF THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES
(Search Continued)

Indiana University Purdue University at Indianapolis (IUPUI)

Indiana University Purdue University at Indianapolis (IUPUI) seeks a dynamic and visionary leader to serve as Director of the IUPUI University Libraries. The position affords a unique opportunity to reshape the role and position of the library as both a campus and community resource in an academic environment committed to the idea of information integration and distributed access. This commitment is embodied in the university’s new $32 million library which serves as the nerve center for the acquisition and distribution of print-based, electronic, and multimedia resources to support communitywide learning. The University Libraries currently have a total annual budget of $6.8 million. Further enhancement of the University Libraries is one of the top-ranked campus priorities.

The Director will have a proven track record in library administration and a keen sense of how information and communication technologies are transforming the structure and role of academic libraries. He or she will have the experience, personality, and academic credentials to provide intellectual as well as administrative leadership, and will be comfortable working in partnership with other information technology professionals on and off campus. An MLS (or MA/MIS in library science) from an ALA-accredited program is strongly preferred, though other combinations of education and experience will be considered. A second advanced degree would also be strongly preferred. The successful candidate’s professional and scholastic credentials will warrant a tenured senior appointment. Nominations and applications will be considered until the position is filled, expected to be within the 1994–95 academic year. Previous applications are still active and candidates need not reapply. Formal and informal inquiries, application, and curricula vitae, including names of three references, should be sent to the Chair of the Search Committee, preferably by October 15, 1994.

TWO POSITIONS: AUTOMATED SYSTEMS AND TECHNICAL SERVICES

The American University in Cairo

Applications are invited for two positions in the library of the American University in Cairo.

The new position of HEAD OF LIBRARY AUTOMATED SYSTEMS: Involves coordinating the planning, development, and implementation of all automated systems for the library's functions and services, including providing technical support for the library's integrated DOBIS/LIBIS system, public access computing, microcomputing, and local area networks, as well as staff training, and providing leadership in enhancements of services through new information technology. Required qualifications include a graduate degree in librarianship or other relevant graduate degree; minimum three to five years experience in academic libraries, of which a substantial portion has involved maintaining an integrated library system. Knowledge of and experience with USMARC, Internet, and CD-ROM technology are essential. Rank will be Senior Librarian.

The second opening is for ASSISTANT LIBRARY DIRECTOR FOR TECHNICAL SERVICES. As part of the Senior Library Administration Group, the appointee will be responsible for overall management of the technical services functions of the library, including cataloging, acquisitions, and automated systems; for supervision and training of technical services staff; and for bringing the library's bibliographic functions into full compliance with U.S. standards. Required qualifications include a graduate degree in librarianship, second master's degree desirable; minimum five years experience in supervising technical services in an academic library, with at least three years of cataloging experience; knowledge of U.S. cataloging standards; background in the application of automated information technology within a library context.

Both positions are two-year appointments (renewable) beginning in September 1995. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. For expatriates, housing, round-trip air travel, plus schooling for two children are included. Write with curriculum vitae, preferably before November 15, 1994, to:

CHAIR, ACCESS SERVICES, Humboldt State University Library. The University Library seeks a creative, resourceful individual to manage those units—Acquisitions, Cataloging, Circulation, Periodicals, Stack Maintenance, and Systems (three librarians and 16 FTE staff)—whose functions are centered around the automated integrated system, GEAC ADVANCE. Responsibilities include administration and coordination of the operation of the current system, planning for future generations of access systems, integration with other library databases to develop a librarywide system, cooperation with other campus units to develop a CWIS, as well as personnel management, policy development, and budget oversight. The Chair reports to the University Librarian and serves on the library's management council. Minimum qualifications: ALA-accredited MLS; five years of professional library experience, with at least two years at the managerial level, including personnel management, policy development, and budget oversight. Working knowledge of and demonstrated experience with automated library systems; demonstrated commitment to collegial style and participative management; thorough understanding of and commitment to the philosophies, standards, and practices governing bibliographic access. Candidates whose characteristics and qualifications also suit them to prepare individuals to function in a culturally and ethnically diverse society are especially encouraged to apply. Preferred qualifications: Substantial work experience in an academic library in one or more of the units supervised; strong communication skills and a service perspective; good interpersonal skills and ability to utilize employees creatively; broad knowledge of emerging technologies and their applications in libraries; ability to analyze and interpret complex technical data; thorough understanding of the MARC format; and ability to embrace and implement change effectively. This is a full-time tenure-track position with appointment at Senior Assistant Librarian ($37,560 to $52,044), or Associate Librarian ($47,376 to $65,868). Benefits include optional 10-month year, 24 days annual vacation, 10 to 14 legal holidays, sick leave, and competitive retirement and health plans. Librarians are members of the general faculty with rank. HSU has a student population of 6,600 FTE and is the northernmost of the California State University campuses. The Library/Media Services has a collection of 435,000 volumes, along with a large government documents collection. Qualified candidates should submit a letter of application, resume, and names of three references by October 31, 1994, to: Chair, Library Faculty Personnel Committee, c/o Library Librarian, Humboldt State University Library, Arcata CA 95521. HSU is an AA, EOE, Title IX employer.
LIBRARIAN FOR INFORMATION AND DOCUMENT DELIVERY SERVICES

A key component of the Harvard College Library's Strategic Plan, is the development of a comprehensive interlibrary loan and document delivery program. To achieve this goal and develop services and policies that support information access in the emerging electronic environment, the Library is creating a new key management position: Librarian for Information and Document Delivery Services. The charge will be to guide and coordinate the development of ILL, and document delivery services among the eleven College Libraries. The incumbent will play a significant role in the development of a collaborative, cost-based, and effective ILL and resource sharing program. Specific responsibilities will include:

• Providing leadership of interlibrary loan, resource sharing, document delivery issues within the College Library, the Faculty of Arts and Sciences Libraries, the University, and beyond.
• Leading strategic, financial and long-range planning activities.
• Developing comprehensive policies for lending and user-oriented borrowing.
• Investigating and implementing new services and capabilities, such as electronic requesting and delivery capabilities including the commercial document delivery suppliers and services.
• Managing Widener's ILL functions (lending and borrowing) including the automation of internal processing functions; personnel and budget management.

Qualifications: MLS or equivalent and a minimum of 5 years managerial experience required. Strong commitment to furthering the use of advanced information technology in a service-oriented setting; proven skills necessary to provide creative leadership for implementation and development of a state of the art program; knowledge of national interlibrary loan and research sharing trends; knowledge of current technologies and services including electronic requesting and delivery technologies, commercial document delivery services, copyright compliance, etc. Good communication skills and the ability to work creatively while fostering a cooperative approach is essential.

The College Library consists of the central collections of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences (7.3 mil. vol.) with a staff of 416 FTE. In addition to Widener, the libraries include Cabot Science, Fine Arts, Harvard Yenching (East Asia), Houghton (rare books), Kummel (geology), Lamont and Hilles (undergraduate), Littauer (economics and government), Music, and Tozzer (anthropology).

Available: Immediately.

Compensation: Anticipated hiring salary mid 40's. Major benefits include generous vacation, holiday and sick leave; choice of health plans; dental insurance; life insurance; University-funded Income Plan; tax-deferred annuity options; tuition assistance.

Interested candidates may send a letter of interest, resume, and the names of three references to: Susan Lee, Associate Librarian of Harvard College for Administrative Services, Harvard College Library, Widener 192, Cambridge, MA 02138.

POSITION OPENINGS FOR LIBRARIANS AND ARCHIVISTS

Open Media Research Institute

Librarians and archive staff specializing in the former Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe are being sought to staff a new, U.S.-sponsored research institute with offices in Washington, D.C., and Prague, the Czech Republic. Called the Open Media Research Institute (OMRI), this organization employs specialists who are responsible for analyzing key issues and developments in these regions and disseminating this information internationally through print and electronic media.

OMRI is the custodian of the Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty archives, one the world’s largest archives covering the post-1950 Soviet Union and its successor states and Central and Eastern Europe. These holdings include an extensive and valuable samizdat collection. The institute also maintains a specialized library concerning the region. Available positions in the Information Services Department (ISD) include: An Assistant Director for Library and Automation, several Senior Librarians, Systems Librarians, an Electronic Services Librarian, an Assistant Director for Archive Services, Senior Archivists, and Advanced Information Services Reference Archivists. At present, all the positions are located in Prague.

ISD supports the work of OMRI research analysts, international broadcasters, government policy communities, visiting scholars, and media representatives. These positions offer the opportunity to participate in the development of innovative approaches to acquiring, processing, caring for, and transmitting information from the former Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS INCLUDE: A master’s degree in library science from an ALA-accredited program for the librarians’ positions and a bachelor’s degree for the archivists’ positions, or equivalent experience and education. Demonstrated ability to develop and provide information services in an electronic media environment. Good written and verbal English and an excellent command of one or more languages of the area: the former Soviet Union, Czech and Slovak republics, Poland, Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary, former Yugoslavia, and Albania. Reading knowledge of additional languages is desirable.

Salary will be competitive and commensurate with experience. An attractive benefits package will be offered which includes competitive health care and pension programs, relocation assistance, moving and housing allowance, and life insurance.

Interviews will be conducted beginning in late July 1994. Positions will be filled as soon as possible.

Applicants should provide: A comprehensive curriculum vitae, a letter explaining the applicant’s career interests and goals, and the names, addresses, and current telephone and fax numbers of at least three people competent to assess the applicant’s ability to succeed in the position sought.

Olin Kroch Uris Libraries
Cornell University Library

The Cornell University Library seeks an experienced, creative public services librarian to head a challenging new reference and instruction program. The recent administrative merger of Olin, Kroch, and Uris Libraries at Cornell underlies a commitment to develop an integrated approach to the user services in these physically connected libraries. As the head of a newly created unit incorporating four service desks in Olin and Uris Libraries and an extensive classroom instruction program, the division head will have the opportunity to shape, in a rapidly changing academic and technological environment, the reference services program in the largest unit at one of the country's leading academic library systems. Serving primarily the faculty and students of the College of Arts and Sciences, the combined three libraries with holdings of over three million volumes have a central role in supporting user needs throughout the university.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Provides strong leadership in planning, implementing, managing, and evaluating reference and instructional services in Olin and Uris Libraries. Supervises and motivates a staff of 11 reference and instruction librarians and 10 information assistants and administrative staff plus students. Oversees an operating and materials budget in excess of $1 million per year. Participates in the development and implementation of an extensive renovation program for Olin and Uris Libraries. Contributes to policy direction and decision making in Olin/Kroch/Uris as a member of the unit's administrative group. Participates actively in librarywide programs.

QUALIFICATIONS: MLS or equivalent. At least six years of increasingly responsible experience in reference services in an academic library. Background in social sciences and/or humanities required. Evidence of ability to provide leadership in the application of new technologies in enhancing user services. Evidence of initiative, leadership, reference, organizational, and personnel management skills, as well as enthusiasm for working cooperatively with colleagues and faculty. Excellent oral and written communication skills. Record of active professional involvement.

SALARY: Minimum $45,000.

CLOSING DATE: October 15, 1994, but applications will be accepted until position is filled.
