Send résumé and three recent letters of reference to Ms. Whalen, Personnel Librarian, University Library, Room 109, State University of New York at Albany, Albany, NY 12222.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF LIBRARY OPERATIONS. Actions of agencies outside research libraries are affecting their procedures and services, e.g., adoption of ACR II by LC in 1980, national networked systems for searching for transmission of bibliographic data or documents. The traditional divisions of responsibilities between technical and reader services are becoming blurred. The many changes experienced by the University Libraries have evolved so that an assistant director is needed whose responsibilities will relate the changing technology of bibliographic control to local requirements and resources. The assistant director must be a staff position but will also have to administer existing operations and to implement changes resulting from the planning the assistant director initiates. Applicants must have knowledge about the functions of technical services to work with experts in these areas within and outside the university. The assistant director must work with computer-assisted operations and have the ability to help design and develop organizational systems and computer applications, some of which will be on a statewide and/or national level. Salary: minimum $22,000. Fringe benefits: TIAA/CREF retirement plan; social security; health, hospital, and life insurance; partially subsidized liberal sick leave. The University is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer. Write to Robert T. Grazer, Associate Director of Libraries, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI 48202.
