Deadline: Orders for regular classified advertisements must reach the ACRL office on or before the second of the month preceding publication of the issue (e.g., September 2 for the October issue). Should the date fall on a weekend or holiday, ads will be accepted on the next business day. Late job listings will be accepted on space-available basis after the second of the month.

Rates: Classified advertisements are $9.75 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $11.85 for others. Late job notices are $22.70 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $27.50 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status. Display ad rates range from $450 to $840 based upon size. Please call for sizes and rates. Or see our Web site: http://www.ala.org/acrl/advert2.html.

Guidelines: For ads that list an application deadline, we suggest that date be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary range per policy of the American Library Association (ALA). Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

Internet: C&RL News classified ads are accessible on the Web at http://www.ala.org/acrl/c&rlnew2.html. Ads will be placed approximately 2-3 weeks before the printed edition of C&RL News is published.

Contact: Elise Parker, Classified Advertising Manager, C&RL News Classified Advertising Department, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2795; (312) 280-2513; fax: (312) 280-7663 or (312)280-2520; e-mail: c&rlnewsads@ala.org.

Policy: ALA policy requires that organizations recruiting through ALA publications or placement services comply with ALA anti-discrimination policies. Policy 54.3 states that “ALA is committed to equality of opportunity for all library employees or applicants for employment, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, age, physical or mental handicap, individual lifestyle, or national origin.” By advertising through ALA services, the organization agrees to comply with this policy.

Occidental College seeks an experienced, dynamic, and creative leader for its College Librarian. The College is embarking upon an ambitious program to merge the Library and Information Technology Services, and we expect the new College Librarian to play a major role in this initiative as well as to oversee a reinvigoration of the traditional Library functions. The position reports to the Chief Information Officer and has faculty status at the college. Specific responsibilities include the collaborative development of the library’s collections and services, allocation and control of the library’s budget, management of the library’s human resources, and identification of opportunities for the use of new technologies. The College Librarian will participate in library and campus committees, nurture and develop consortial relationships with other libraries, and direct successful grant-writing and fund raising efforts.

QUALIFICATIONS:
An ALA-accredited master’s degree and a second advanced degree in an academic discipline are required. We also expect candidates to have demonstrated leadership and management skills in an academic library. Experience in a private college library is highly preferred. Candidates must have an informed vision of the library in the 21st century and skills to advocate for and communicate that vision. Demonstrated achievements in fund raising, applications of technology, and consortial arrangements are particularly desired. Naturally, we expect the College Librarian to understand the special place of the library in a liberal arts college and to work collegially with faculty, students, and staff. The successful candidate will have demonstrated a service orientation and excellent written and oral communication skills.

THE COLLEGE:
Occidental College is a small, highly selective, private liberal arts college located in Los Angeles. The College has a long tradition of excellence and equity and is consistently rated the most diverse small college in the country. It is also one of the most successful colleges at combining teaching and scholarship by its faculty, and in supporting research by its undergraduates. For more information about the College and the library, visit our Web site at: www.oxy.edu.

THE PROCESS
Applicants should send a letter describing their qualification relating to the position, a curriculum vitae, and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of three current references to:

Librarian Search Committee

Human Resources
Occidental College
1600 Campus Road
Los Angeles, CA 90041

We anticipate completing the search by the end of May 2001; however, the search will continue until the position is filled. Occidental College is proud of its outstanding record in the diversity of its student body, its faculty, and its staff. We are committed to improving that record.

Deputy Librarian/Senior Sub-Librarian

Applications are invited for the following posts: (a) Deputy Librarian, (b) Deputy Librarian/Senior Sub-Librarian in the University Libraries (Ref: RF-2000/2001-289), tenable from 1 June 2001, to take charge of (a) Reader Services and (b) the Fung Ping Shan Library. The appointments will initially be made on a fixed-term basis of two to three years, with a possibility of renewal.

The University Libraries East Asian collection comprises over 600,000 volumes, 3,800 current serial titles, 200 current newspapers and 76 electronic databases, mostly Chinese, and accessions total around 30,000 volumes a year. The University Libraries use Innopac for both Western and East Asian collections.

For post (a), applicants should have a good University degree plus a recognised professional qualification in library and information science (MLS or equivalent), with extensive experience in an academic library, of which at least 5 years should have been in a senior management position carrying considerable responsibility. The Deputy Librarian, in addition to assisting the Librarian in general administration and management (personnel, budget control etc) and in planning and developing the library system, is expected to co-ordinate system-wide operations and services, and to oversee library public services and branch libraries. Knowledge of the latest trends and developments in information technology is a definite advantage. Strong interpersonal and written communication skills and fluency in English and Chinese are desirable.

For post (b), applicants for appointment as Senior Sub-Librarian should have a good University degree and a relevant professional qualification in Librarianship (MLS or equivalent) plus at least 5 years’ appropriate experience at a senior level, preferably in an East-Asian library. A strong academic background in Chinese studies with higher qualifications and or a record of publishing in this area will be a distinct advantage. Experience with CJK automated systems and digital databases is desirable. Proficiency in English and Chinese, and good communication, organizational and management skills are essential. An exceptionally well-qualified and experienced applicant may be appointed as Deputy Librarian. The appointee will be responsible for the administration of the Fung Ping Shan Library, including collection development, reference and all other public services, user education, technical processing, and strategic planning. He/she is expected to demonstrate vision and leadership in furthering the development of the Fung Ping Shan Library and to play an active role in Chinese collaborative projects in the region and internationally.

The Libraries reserve the right to make the appointment at a lower level.

Annual salaries [attracting 15% (taxable) terminal gratuity] are on the following scales, with starting salary depending on qualifications and experience: Deputy Librarian: HK$861,180 - HK$1,156,860 (9 points) (US$110,418 - US$148,328; US Dollar equivalents as at 19 February 2001); Senior Sub-Librarian: HK$861,180 - HK$1,046,400 (6 points) (US$110,418 - US$134,166). At current rates, salaries tax will not exceed 15% of gross income. The appointment carries leave, medical and dental benefits, an allowance for children’s education in Hong Kong, and where appropriate, a financial subsidy under the Home Financing Scheme for reimbursing either the actual rental payment or the mortgage repayment up to the relevant maximum entitlement may be provided.

Further particulars and application forms can be obtained at http://www.hku.hk/apptunit/; or from the Appointments Unit (Senior), Registry, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong (Fax: (852) 2540 6735 or 2559 2058; E-mail: apptunit@reg.hku.hk). Applicants are requested to approach not more than three referees who are able and willing to comment on their suitability for the post in question and request that these confidential references be sent directly to the Appointments Unit within a week of the closing date. Closes 21 April 2001.

The Nimitz Library, United States Naval Academy, is seeking a user-oriented administrator with energy, initiative, enthusiasm, and appropriate experience to head its Special Collections and Archives Division. For additional details about the position, including required qualifications and information that applicants need to provide, consult the official position announcement at http://www.usna.edu/JobInfo, or at the Library's address below, after April 1, 2001.

The Naval Academy is the Navy's undergraduate college, with 4,150 students, more than 500 civilian and military faculty, and 18 major fields of study in three academic divisions (seven in Engineering, seven in Math and Science, and four in the Humanities/Social Sciences). The Academy has produced four Rhodes Scholars in the last eight years alone.

The Nimitz Library has a user-oriented staff of 41 FTE (including 18 professional librarians) and some 535,000 volumes of books and bound periodicals, plus government documents, microforms, and a growing array of electronic resources. "Library Excellence" is one of the initiatives in the Naval Academy's new Strategic Plan, and consequently the Library has begun receiving significant budgetary increases for acquisitions. For additional information, see: http://www.usna.edu/Library.

Reporting to the Librarian/Associate Dean for Information, the Head of Special Collections and Archives will oversee a staff of five (4.5 FTE), including three librarians, an archivist, and an archives assistant. Special Collections contains some 34,000 volumes and approximately 550 linear feet of manuscripts; the latter include the papers of William A. Moffett (pioneer in naval aviation) and Albert Michelson (USNA 1878, the first American to win the Nobel Prize in Physics). The Edward Steichen Photography Collection numbers more than 30,000 World War II original combat prints and also about 900 original works by well-known photographers such as Alfred Stieglitz, Margaret Bourke-White, Edward Weston, Dorothea Lange, and Ansel Adams. The USNA Archives is a branch of the National Archives; it contains the records of the Academy since the institution's founding in 1845, including some 25,000 photographs and the architectural drawings of Ernest Flagg. The Special Collections and Archives Division is launching a significant digitization program.

Located in Annapolis, the capital of Maryland and "America's sailing capital," the Naval Academy is 30 miles from both Washington, D.C. and Baltimore in the beautiful Chesapeake Bay area.

Minimum salary is $53,156 (first step of GS-12 pay grade); higher salary possible, depending on experience or other qualifications.

HOW TO APPLY: Send a detailed curriculum vitae, and preferably a cover letter as well, to the address specified in the official announcement. Applications must contain all the elements required by the official announcement. Candidates are also encouraged to provide the information that is recommended in that announcement, which will be found at http://www.usna.edu/JobInfo or http://www.usna.edu/Library, after April 1, 2001.

SENIOR CATALOG LIBRARIAN
University of Maryland, Baltimore County

University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC), an honors university serving approximately 9,000 undergraduate and 1,500 graduate students, is one of two public universities in Maryland to achieve the “doctoral/research university-extensive” Carnegie classification. Located just outside Baltimore and 45 minutes from Washington, D.C., the campus is growing rapidly under dynamic leadership. The University’s ongoing commitment to strengthen the Library has led to investment in extensive technological development and online resources (see www.umbc.edu/library), complementing a superb facility enlarged and renovated in 1995 and holding more than 800,000 volumes.

We now seek a senior cataloger to lead and manage staff responsible for providing description and access for library materials. The cataloger performs original and some complex copy cataloging of library materials in book and other formats and manages copy cataloging activities. Collaborates in establishing cataloging policy and procedures in the context of national and international standards. Ensures the integrity of the bibliographic data in the online catalog. Participates in team management of Technical Services and collaborates in providing access to the library’s developing electronic collections.

QUALIFICATIONS:
ALA-accredited MLS; professional cataloging experience in an academic or research library in an automated environment; experience with AACR2r, LC subject headings and classification, USMARC formats, and a major bibliographic utility; ability to work collaboratively in a team environment and to manage a variety of priorities; ability to work effectively in a production-environment; supervisory experience; and strong communication, organizational, and problem-solving skills. Reading knowledge of one or more foreign languages preferred.

SALARY AND BENEFITS:
Position is a 12-month library faculty appointment at anticipated rank of either Librarian II or III. Rank and salary commensurate with qualifications. Comprehensive benefits. The successful candidate will be expected to meet library and university requirements for reappointment, promotion, and permanent status.

Review of applications begins May 11, 2001, and continues until the position is filled. Send letter of application, résumé, and names of three references to:

The UCLA Louise M. Darling Biomedical Library seeks applicants for the Head of their Catalog-Bindery Division. Reporting to the Deputy Director, the Catalog-Bindery Division Head provides leadership and management, including the setting of goals and priorities. Supervise both professional and nonprofessional staff (4.75 FTE). Perform original cataloging of texts, monographs, serials, and nonprint materials, electronic resources, CD-ROMs, and early imprints in the clinical and preclinical sciences, the allied health fields, Psychology, and the life sciences. Make policy decisions about integrating Medical Subject Headings (MeSH) and the National Library of Medicine Classification with the Library of Congress’ subject headings and classification. Participate actively in formulating cataloging policies for the UCLA Library as a member of the Advisory Committee on Cataloging. Contribute as a Division Head to librarywide planning of the Biomedical Library. Monitor the bindery and general assistance budgets, perform long-range planning, and prepare annual and special reports.

QUALIFICATIONS: MLS from an ALA-accredited library school normally required. Demonstrated excellent managerial, planning, communication, supervisory skills, experience in an academic or research library, and the ability to work in a team environment. Direct knowledge of and experience with MARC21 and the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules. Experience with the application and interpretation of Library of Congress subject headings and classification. Direct knowledge of and experience with one of the national bibliographic utilities, preferably OCLC. Experience with a local integrated library system. Knowledge of national cataloging standards, and issues and trends in technical services and automation. Direct knowledge of the National Library of Medicine Classification and Medical Subject Headings (MeSH) preferred.
