to the life and works of Robert Louis Stevenson. Miss Shaffer will assume her new post on August 1.

A native of Leadville, Colorado, where she first discovered the fascination of old books while working in the public library during her high school days, Ellen Shaffer has long been a rare book enthusiast. Although she organized an elementary school library system in Anaheim, California, and worked briefly for the Los Angeles County Library, her interest had always been in the antiquarian book field. She went to work with Dawson’s Book Shop of Los Angeles, largest antiquarian book firm west of the Mississippi, and for twenty years headed their department of manuscripts and first editions, where her work included buying, selling, appraising, issuing catalogs, and making occasional buying trips to Europe.

We don't know exactly how many copies of this book were originally published 361 years ago. But we do know that over the years it's become more and more difficult for scholars to get their hands on one.

Fortunately, University Microfilms is making sure that the supply of any book is precisely equal to the demand for it. And if just one copy of a book exists, and is capable of being microfilmed, we can make as many additional copies as anyone wants.

As of this moment, we have over 82,000 out-of-print books on microfilm. And if we don't have a book, we'll find it, film it, and turn out copies like the one above.

Books printed in Roman alphabets cost 4¢ per page. Books in non-Roman alphabets cost 8¢ a page. And our minimum order is one copy.

If you're a librarian interested in seeing which books we already have on film, send for our free 500-page catalog. We'll also send you The O-P Bookfinder, our monthly publication which lists the books we're adding to our collection.

If you still can't find what you want, send us the title, author and publisher's name. If copies of the book are still around, we'll see to it that you get one too.

German Exile Literature in America 1933-1950

A History of the Free German Press and Book Trade

by Dr. Robert E. Cazden

As the nature of Nazi oppression became increasingly apparent, an entire literary generation emigrated from Germany. Writers, journalists, members of the book trade brought with them their imagination, hopes and talent.

This highly absorbing bibliographical reference work reveals

- how thousands of German-language books and journals, published outside the Third Reich, were imported and distributed in America
- who was responsible for printing and publishing Free German Literature in this country
- the fate of the German émigré author in America

A fascinating story tells how social, political, even labor elements influenced and were influenced by this massive literary exodus. Appendices list and describe (in many cases for the first time) the emigration German-language literature produced on these shores. More than 350 publications from 80 publishers and 82 newspapers and periodicals are also identified.

An indispensable reference work for the librarian, literary and social historian, collector, bookseller and involved reader.

ESSENTIAL—The National Faculty Directory—1970 is the only source you need to consult in order to learn "who's where" in the academic world. College and university faculty members occupy pivotal positions in today's world. An inexhaustible source of information, they are the kinds of people other people need to identify, locate, and contact.

EASY-TO-USE—Until now, information on faculty members has been available only in piecemeal form. Now, in a single alphabetical source, it is possible to locate virtually every person in the United States who has a faculty position at any of more than 2,500 colleges and universities. Each of the 320,000 listings includes the individual's name, institution name, departmental designation, street address if necessary, and city, state, and zip.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST, WITH ADDRESSES, OF 320,000 FACULTY MEMBERS AT JUNIOR COLLEGES, COLLEGES, AND UNIVERSITIES IN THE UNITED STATES

COMPREHENSIVE—Covers over ninety-five percent of faculty members in the United States. These faculty members are drawn from all disciplines, sub-disciplines, and inter-disciplinary programs. In addition to full-time teachers, The National Faculty Directory includes presidents, vice-presidents, deans, and other major administrative executives as well as thousands of lecturers, adjunct and visiting professors, artists and writers in residence, and persons in other teaching positions.

UP-TO-DATE—An annual publication. The National Faculty Directory is based on the latest catalogs, class lists, and campus directories. The master data bank is updated monthly to insure that each annual contains the current information required by publishers, equipment manufacturers, government offices, newspapermen, research scientists, students, management consultants, personnel departments, executive recruiters, academic colleagues, and hundreds of other researchers.
