Classified Advertising

NOTICE

Classified advertising orders and copy, and cancellations, should be directed to Leona Swiech at (312) 944-6780. A confirmation association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611, and should reach be addressed to the Advertising Department, American Library Association, as possible following the call, along with typewritten copy to be used in proofreading the ad.

Telephone orders for classified advertising, while not encouraged because of the increased risk of copy error, will be accepted. Calls Rate for classified advertising is $1.80 per printed line.

FOR SALE

GENERAL COLLECTION—reasonable. All topics. 1,000 vols. plus. Write M. Frazin, ERAC Box 110, Farmington, CT 06032.

SEARCH SERVICE. Ex-librarians locate titles or subject plus 15,000 indexed stock. PAB 2915-17 Atlantic Ave., Atlantic City, NJ 08401. Phone (609) 344-1943.

Classified Advertising

POSITIONS OPEN

ASSISTANT GENERAL REFERENCE LIBRARIAN AND LIBRARIAN. Position available May 1. Requires master's degree in library science from an ALA-accredited institution and bachelor's degree in education with subject master's degree preferred. Teaching or bibliographic instruction experience desirable. Minimum salary $11,000. Responsible for planning, developing, coordinating, and implementing library orientation and instruction programs with the assistance of other reference librarians. Works with faculty, students, and other librarians to develop print and audiovisual library instructional materials. Offers reference assistance in the General Reference Division. Applications deadline April 15. Apply to: Associate Director of Libraries, Columbia, MO 65201. An affirmative action/equal opportunity Employer.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN. Position available April 1. Requires master's degree in library science from an ALA-accredited institution and a working knowledge of two modern European languages are highly desirable. Assistant law librarian and librarian. Minimum salary $11,000. Responsible for providing evening reference services and for the supervision of circulating and other public services in the evening. Will develop and maintain new serial records, including check-in systems, claims procedures, binding, and replacements. Maintains the catalog records for serials. Recommends acquisitions to the collection, particularly with respect to serials and government documents. Plans and implements projects and services for improving library operations. Applications deadline: April 1. Apply to: Associate Director of Libraries, Columbia, MO 65201. An affirmative action/equal opportunity Employer.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN FOR PUBLIC SERVICES. Position available July 1. Bethany College, private, coeducational, church related, liberal arts college near Wheeling, W. Va.–Pittsburgh. Responsible for teaching library skills, working with faculty to integrate library use into the academic program. General reference desk work, supervision of library loan, and assisting the director in collection development. One-year initial appointment on a nine-month contract. Full faculty status and fringe benefits. Rank dependent on qualifications. Starting salary $10,000–$12,000. MLS from an ALA-accredited program required. Second master's degree in a humanistic discipline desired. Experience in college reference work preferred. Application deadline March 15. Please submit resume and three letters of recommendation to Mr. Larry Frye, Library Director, T. W. Philadelphia, Bethany College, Bethany, WV 26322. Bethany is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN FOR PUBLIC SERVICES. Supervises and coordinates the work of reference, interlibrary loan, circulation, and photocopy. Develops and implements public service policies and programs in a medium-sized medical center library containing 150,000 volumes, computer and audiovisual equipment, a clinical librarian, a total staff of more than 50 people, and a budget of 74 million dollars. Requirements: college and library degrees and at least three years' experience, some supervisory. MLA certification helpful. Salary: $13,000 to $16,000, depending on background and experience. Send resume to: Barbara Halbrook, Washington University School of Medicine Library, 4580 Scott Ave., St. Louis, MO 63110, by April 15. An equal opportunity employer.

ASSISTANT REFERENCE LIBRARIAN. Duties to include wide range of reference desk service, supervision of growing microforms collection, participation in library use instruction, etc. MLS required. Applicants with 2–3 years' academic library experience preferred. Minimum salary without experience $9,800. Excellent fringe benefits and leave policies. Position open August 15. Applications must be received by April 30. Equal employment-affirmative action employer. Send resume and credentials to Leo R. Riff, College Librarian, Ithaca College, Danby Road, Ithaca, NY 14850.

ASSISTANT REFERENCE LIBRARIAN. Foreign language major or strong foreign language background required. Must have MLS from ALA–accredited school. Candidates will be expected to participate in reference service, bibliographic instruction, computer-assisted reference service, and book selection. Salary $11,500 and up, depending upon experience. Faculty status, tenure-track position. Twelve-month appointment; liberal retirement, insurance, and vacation benefits. Send resume, current letters of recommendation, and placement folder to: Dr. James Thompson, Library Director, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, NC 27412. Deadline for re-
ASSISTANT REFERENCE LIBRARIAN. Performs general reference services including reference desk coverage, computer data base searching, collection development, and instructional services (some from distance). MLS from accredited library school required. Salary: $13,000-$16,000 depending on qualifications. Library experience desirable. Faculty status; 12-month appointment with 24 days' annual leave; TIAA. Position open July 1. Application deadline April 30. Phone: (715) 735-7477. Inquiries concerning the position may be sent to Ruth H. Donovan, Assistant Director of Libraries, University of Wisconsin Center-Marinette, Box 541, Telephone (715) 735-7477. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

GENERAL REFERENCE LIBRARIAN AND LIBRARIAN III. Position available April 1. Requires minimum of five years of professional experience, preferably with cataloging and classification. MLS from accredited library school preferred. Salary: $12,000-$16,000. Responsible for cataloging and classification of serials and periodicals. 582 titles acquired per year. Library experience desirable. Two additional years of professional experience, preferably teaching, required. Ph.D. preferred. 12-month appointment with 24 days' vacation, 12 days' sick leave; TIAA. Position open November 15. Salary range: $14,000. Responsible for the organization and operation of the General Reference Division. Plans, develops, and evaluates services in coordination with other public service areas. Assists the Head of Ellis Reference Services in the administration of all reference divisions. Salary scales are presently under review. Position available: July 1. Applicants are requested to send curriculum vitae and to arrange for a minimum of three letters of recommendation. Salary scales are presently under review. Position available: July 1. Applications, including resumes, letters of reference, should be sent before March 15 to Campus Dean, University of Wisconsin Center-Marinette, Box 541, Telephone (715) 735-7477. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

LIBRARY DIRECTOR. University of Wisconsin Center-Marinette. Librarian position description: Master's in librarianship from anALA-accredited institution to manage and direct library services for student body of 350 to 400. Secondary field of foreign language, philosophy, computer science, or political science preferred. Teach a minimum of one introductory course in the primary language. Experience in second field at the freshman-sophomore level. Minimum of M.A. or M.S. in second field. Strong interest and ability in providing instruction to students in use of print and audio-visual materials. Good working knowledge of medical library cataloging and classification practices and experience. Experience in the use of on-line information retrieval systems preferred. Salary and classification dependent on qualifications and experience: $12,000-$16,000. Application deadline is April 1. Salary scales are presently under review. Position available: July 1. Salary scales are presently under review. Position available: July 1. Applications, including resumes, letters of reference, should be sent before March 15 to Campus Dean, University of Wisconsin Center-Marinette, Box 541, Telephone (715) 735-7477. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF LIBRARY AND LEARNING RESOURCES. This administrator is responsible for providing direction and leadership for the university library and audiovisual services in support of academic and service programs and institutional objectives, including budget, personnel, and service, and the extension of institutional support to the university off-campus programs. MLS from anALA-accredited institution preferred. Subject master's desirable. Requires a minimum of five years of professional experience, preferably with cataloging and classification. Salary: $22,500-$25,000. Responsible for cataloging and classification of serials and periodicals. 582 titles acquired per year. Library experience desirable. Two additional years of professional experience, preferably teaching, required. Ph.D. preferred. 12-month appointment with 24 days' vacation, 12 days' sick leave; TIAA. Position open November 15. Salary range: $14,000. Responsible for the organization and operation of the General Reference Division. Plans, develops, and evaluates services in coordination with other public service areas. Assists the Head of Ellis Reference Services in the administration of all reference divisions. Salary scales are presently under review. Position available: July 1. Applications, including resumes, letters of reference, should be sent before March 15 to Campus Dean, University of Wisconsin Center-Marinette, Box 541, Telephone (715) 735-7477. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

GENERAL REFERENCE LIBRARIAN AND LIBRARIAN III. Position available April 1. Requires minimum of five years of professional experience, preferably with cataloging and classification. MLS from accredited library school preferred. Salary: $12,000-$16,000. Responsible for cataloging and classification of serials and periodicals. 582 titles acquired per year. Library experience desirable. Two additional years of professional experience, preferably teaching, required. Ph.D. preferred. 12-month appointment with 24 days' vacation, 12 days' sick leave; TIAA. Position open November 15. Salary range: $14,000. Responsible for the organization and operation of the General Reference Division. Plans, develops, and evaluates services in coordination with other public service areas. Assists the Head of Ellis Reference Services in the administration of all reference divisions. Salary scales are presently under review. Position available: July 1. Applications, including resumes, letters of reference, should be sent before March 15 to Campus Dean, University of Wisconsin Center-Marinette, Box 541, Telephone (715) 735-7477. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.
graphic library materials following the policies and practices of the Medical Library and the Veterinary Medical Library. Responsible for original cataloging and revision of the cataloging of a nonprofessional card catalog system, with verification of new accessioned materials and the reclassification and declassification of library materials. Advises the public service staff on cataloging policy and practices. Applications deadline: April 1. Apply to: Associate Director, Libraries, University of Missouri-Columbia, MO 65201. An affirmative action/affirmative employment opportunity.

MEDLINE ANALYST AND LIFE SCIENCES REFERENCE LIBRARIAN, Science and Engineering Library. MLS and MEDLINE search experience required. Degree in one of the life sciences highly desirable. Salary dependent on experience. Faculty status. TIAA CREF. Open July 1. Send resume before May 15 to Dr. Alene F. Schnalffter, Director, Libraries, Washington State University, Pullman, WA 99164. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. Women, minorities, and/or handicapped are encouraged to apply.

PHILOS COORDINATOR. Coordinates and directs work of computerized serials control system network for 10 medical libraries throughout the State. Requires a master's degree in library science and experience with computer and computer center. Answers questions about network. Makes recommendations for changes to computer program. Trains staffs of the cooperating libraries and monitors operation and flow of mail. Systems knowledges of serials and computer systems required. Salary dependent upon qualifications. Submit application to: Chairperson, Search Committee, University Libraries, Cleveland, OH 44115. An equal opportunity employer.

REFERENCE/INSTRUCTIONAL LIBRARIAN: Assists in planning and implementing library services and in bibliographic instruction. Pertains to user education, instruction, and orientation and in providing general reference service. Minimum two years' relevant experience. MLS from an ALA-accredited school preferred. Salary $11,000 minimum plus generous fringe benefits. Send resume by March 15 to James DeLancey, Georgetown University Library, Washington, DC 20057. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

REFERENCE LIBRARIAN, Health Sciences Library (librarian I or II). The University of Saskatchewan invites applications for the position of health sciences reference librarian. The individual holding this position will be responsible to the health sciences librarian. Duties will include general reference, user education, computer-assisted bibliographic searching, and selection in specified subject areas. The successful candidate will have a degree from an accredited library school. Beginning salary is based on qualifications. Send résumé and three letters of reference to: Chairperson, Search Committee, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan S7N 0W0.

Northwestern University Library announces the second of three SCHOLAR LIBRARIAN positions funded by grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Council on Library Resources. The scholar librarians will have bibliographic, teaching, and faculty liaison responsibilities. Appointment is for a tenure of three years. Starting salary: $12,500. Applications are being accepted from scholars with a Ph.D. in the humanities with no previous experience in librarianship or university teaching. Preferred field: early American history, African history or literature, English or French literature. Deadline for applications: April 15. Send letter of application, vita and placement office dossier including three letters of recommendation to Mr. John McGowan, University Librarian, Northwestern University Library, Evanston, IL 60201. An equal opportunity employer.

SERIALS LIBRARIAN. Position available May 1. Requires master's degree in library science and at least six years of professional experience with primary emphasis on serials. Proven supervisory and management experience and ability required. Responsible for the overall planning and operation of the Serials Department, which includes acquisitions, cataloging, check-in, claims, and binding. Will plan and implement a program for upgrading and serials record-keeping automation. Collection contains over 18,000 serials. Serials Department has three librarians and appropriate support staff. Applications deadline: April 1. Minimum salary: $15,000. Apply to: Associate Director of Libraries, University of Missouri-Columbia, Columbia, MO 65201. An affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

Rutgers University is seeking applications and nominations for the position of UNIVERSITY LIBRARIAN. This individual is responsible for the overall planning and operation of the university library system, which encompasses three major geographic campuses throughout the state of New Jersey. The university librarians report to the vice-president for academic affairs. Candidates should have a strong appreciation and commitment to excellence in scholarship, research, instruction, and extension and public service and proven ability to relate to university faculties. Desirable qualifications might typically include a MLS degree, demonstrated administrative ability in a large university or research library, extensive master planning experience in complex organization, and an understanding of national issues in research library administration. The candidates should have had experience in developing overall acquisition and service plans for large library systems in the framework of both the national institutions and major programs in a large multi-campus system. The development of program budgets and the evaluation of the delivery of library services will be principal responsibilities. In addition, experience in the areas of deans and campus provosts at the various branch campuses of the university. Applications and nominations should be sent by April 1 to Dr. Richard P. McCormick, Chairman of the Rutgers University Librarian Search Committee, Office of the Vice-President for University Personnel, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ 08803. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

VISITING REFERENCE SPECIALIST. Reference and Collection Development Department. California State University, Chico. An experienced professional librarian with skill in general reference practice who also can provide leadership and direction in one of the following areas: (a) general reference and public service; (b) academic library collection development, its organization and practice; (c) orientation and bibliographic instruction, with particular attention to the use of library media. The candidate will be one of the following: minority reference work, nonprint media reference, serials access, or the coordination of reference services with government publications. The ability to suggest and communicate new ideas and techniques is particularly important. In addition to an MLS, the candidate must have a 2nd master's in a subject area, or equivalent professional experience, and must have at least 4 yrs.' responsible experience appropriate to the above assignment. Salary range: $18,180-$21,900 (associate librarian; 12-mo. salary). Position available July 1 (a one-year appointment). Send letter of application, vita, and other professional papers by April 1 to Robert G. Bren- naker, Director of Public Services, California State University, Chico, CA 95929. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.
For $2395
Your library can own the LC Shelflist, the most valuable subject listing of published materials in the world.

6.8 million cards
on microfiche.

ORDER FROM University Microfilms International
ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN 48106

CALL TOLL-FREE 800-521-0600
FOR A PROSPECTUS AND FREE FICHE SAMPLE. SUBJECT SEGMENTS ARE AVAILABLE.