THE CLASSIFIED ADS

Deadlines: Orders for regular classified advertisements must reach the ACRL office on or before the second of the month preceding publication of the issue (e.g., September 2 for the October issue). Should this date fall on a weekend or holiday, ads will be accepted on the next business day. Late job listings will be accepted on a space-available basis after the second of the month.

Rates: Classified advertisements are $7.10 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $9.00 for others. Late notices are $17.25 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $20.50 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status. Display ad rates range from $320 to $610 based upon size. Please call for sizes and rates.

Guidelines: For ads that list an application deadline, we suggest that date be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary range per policy of the American Library Association (ALA). Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

Internet: C&RL News classified ads are now accessible on the Internet through the gopher server at the University of Illinois at Chicago. Ads will be placed on the gopher approximately 2-3 weeks before the printed edition of C&RL News is published. To reach C&RL NewsNet, locate the University of Illinois at Chicago in the menu of all servers maintained on gopher at the University of Minnesota. Alternatively, contact your favorite gopher client directly to host "gopher.uic.edu:70". Select 'The Library' from the menu and then select C&RL NewsNet from the next menu.

Contact: Jack Helbig, Classified Advertising Manager, C&RL News Classified Advertising Department, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2765; (312) 280-2513, fax (312) 280-7663 or (312) 280-2520; e-mail: U21808@UICVM.uic.edu.

Policy: A policy requires that organizations recruiting through ALA publications or placement services comply with ALA anti-discrimination policies. Policy 54.3 states that "ALA is committed to equality of opportunity for all library employees or applicants for employment, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, age, physical or mental handicap, individual lifestyle, or national origin." By advertising through ALA services, the organization agrees to comply with this policy.

ATTENTION LIBRARY INSTRUCTION LIBRARIANS

DREAM JOB

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY
MILTON S. EISENHOWER LIBRARY

Library Instruction Coordinator and Resource Services Librarian for Education

The Milton S. Eisenhower Library offers the opportunity for an imaginative, enterprising librarian to implement and expand a new electronic teaching program, to develop programs and services for the Columbia Center and other off-campus sites of the School of Continuing Studies, to coordinate the training needs of the Resource Services Department, and to act as the Resource Services Librarian for Education.

The library serves a campus of 3,400 undergraduates, 1,800 graduate students, and about 350 faculty in full-time programs, and another 7,000 students enrolled in continuing studies programs. These part-time students are an important constituency that particularly values library instruction and electronic access to information.

The Resource Services Department is composed of 11 subject specialists, each of whom is responsible for building close working relationships with the faculty and students in the academic departments he or she serves.

The Eisenhower Library prizes energy, creativity, and professionalism and offers challenge, independence, and visibility to members of its Resource Services team.

RESPONSIBILITIES

• Direct the library’s instructional program and coordinate the delivery of instructional services to the university community by working with the other Resource Services librarians, the faculty, and the Dean of Students Office.
• Develop library and information programs and services for the Columbia Center and other off-campus sites of the School of Continuing Studies, working closely with center faculty and staff.
• Coordinate orientation and training needs of the Resource Services Department.
• Function as Resource Services Librarian for Education.
• Provide a variety of instructional, reference, and research services to the academic community.

QUALIFICATIONS

• MLS from an ALA-accredited library school required; and an advanced degree in a subject area (preferably education or a related field) or equivalent experience required.
• Significant experience in conducting instructional programs in the use of the library and its resources required.
• Experience with training and teaching part-time, adult learners highly desired.
• Two or more years experience in collection development, and/or reference in a research library preferred.
• Demonstrated planning, organizational, and leadership skills.
• Thorough knowledge of a variety of computer databases (full-text, images, bibliographic), the major bibliographic utilities, the Internet, and experience with such world-wide web browsers as MOSAIC preferred.
• Reading knowledge of at least two foreign languages.
• Willingness to work a flexible schedule (including some evenings and weekends) as part of a team.

The hiring range is $31,100–$42,102, depending on education and experience.

Personnel benefits include 22 days vacation; free life insurance; tuition benefits; TIAA/CREF retirement program, and group health plan cost shared by individual and university.

To be considered, send letter of application indicating job #S95-077, resume, and three letters of reference, by March 24, 1995, to:

enca in an academic library. MSU offers master's degrees in over 60 academic disciplines. Graduate assistantships are internships in the discipline—in this case, two disciplines—library science and the subject discipline of your choice. Graduate assistants supervise student workers and perform other professional services in the public and technical services of the library. Public service positions include reference desk assistance, interlibrary loan, educational resource center, media production, circulation, maps, periodicals, and bibliographic instruction. Positions in the technical services include acquisitions, cataloging, and library research. Successful candidates must show evidence of demonstrable working experience in one of the areas listed. A full-time assistantship averages 20 hours of work and pays approximately $155 per week for 34 weeks of the academic year. Eleven-month assistantships are also available with additional compensation.
