- The Harvard Distributable Union Catalog on microfiche is now available. This new catalog includes author, title, and subject entries for computerized cataloging produced by various Harvard libraries since July 1, 1977. It also includes author and title entries for works on order but not yet received, and for works received but not yet cataloged in the Harvard libraries. The first issue of the DUC consists of 360 microfiche. The reduction ratio is 48:1. Copies are available for $75 from Laura Margolis, University Library, Wadsworth House, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA 02138.

- Target Group Index: How It Works introduces a marketing tool that cross-tabulates demographic and psychographic characteristics of over 30,000 people with patterns of product consumption and exposure to magazines, radio, and television. A detailed explanation of how to read and interpret data on TGI Tables is followed by discussion of how analysis of TGI data affects marketing decisions. The slide/cassette program is available for rental at $15 or for purchase at $60, and may be ordered from E. Wood, Bowling Green State University Library, Bowling Green, OH 43403. Cardboard mounts, color. 170 slides, 1 cassette, 40 minutes.
