Classified ads are $9.75 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $11.85 for others. Local job notices are $22.70 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $27.50 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status. Display ad rates range from $450 to $840 based upon size. Please call for sizes and rates. Or see our Web site: http://www.ala.org/acrl/advert2.html.

Guidelines: For ads that list an application deadline, we suggest that date be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary range per policy of the American Library Association (ALA). Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

Internet: C&RL News classified ads are accessible on the Web at http://www.ala.org/acrl/c&rlnews2.html. Ads will be placed approximately 2–3 weeks before the printed edition of C&RL News is published.

Contact: Elise Parker, Classified Advertising Manager, C&RL News Classified Advertising Department, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2793; (312) 280-2513, fax: (312) 280-7653 or (312) 280-2520; e-mail: crlnewsads@ala.org.

Policy: ALA policy requires that organizations recruiting through ALA publications or placement services comply with ALA anti-discrimination policies. Policy 64.3 states that "ALA is committed to equality of opportunity for all library employees or applicants for employment, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, age, physical or mental handicap, individual lifestyle, or national origin." By advertising through ALA services, the organization agrees to comply with this policy.

Classified Advertising Department, ACRL, C&RL News Classifieds

Classified advertisements are $9.75 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $11.85 for others. Local job notices are $22.70 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $27.50 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status. Display ad rates range from $450 to $840 based upon size. Please call for sizes and rates. Or see our Web site: http://www.ala.org/acrl/advert2.html.

Guidelines: For ads that list an application deadline, we suggest that date be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary range per policy of the American Library Association (ALA). Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

Internet: C&RL News classified ads are accessible on the Web at http://www.ala.org/acrl/c&rlnews2.html. Ads will be placed approximately 2–3 weeks before the printed edition of C&RL News is published.

Contact: Elise Parker, Classified Advertising Manager, C&RL News Classified Advertising Department, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2793; (312) 280-2513, fax: (312) 280-7653 or (312) 280-2520; e-mail: crlnewsads@ala.org.

Policy: ALA policy requires that organizations recruiting through ALA publications or placement services comply with ALA anti-discrimination policies. Policy 64.3 states that "ALA is committed to equality of opportunity for all library employees or applicants for employment, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, age, physical or mental handicap, individual lifestyle, or national origin." By advertising through ALA services, the organization agrees to comply with this policy.

Classified Advertising Department, ACRL, C&RL News Classifieds

Classified ads are $9.75 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $11.85 for others. Local job notices are $22.70 per line for institutions that are ACRL members, $27.50 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status. Display ad rates range from $450 to $840 based upon size. Please call for sizes and rates. Or see our Web site: http://www.ala.org/acrl/advert2.html.

Guidelines: For ads that list an application deadline, we suggest that date be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary range per policy of the American Library Association (ALA). Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

Internet: C&RL News classified ads are accessible on the Web at http://www.ala.org/acrl/c&rlnews2.html. Ads will be placed approximately 2–3 weeks before the printed edition of C&RL News is published.

Contact: Elise Parker, Classified Advertising Manager, C&RL News Classified Advertising Department, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2793; (312) 280-2513, fax: (312) 280-7653 or (312) 280-2520; e-mail: crlnewsads@ala.org.

Policy: ALA policy requires that organizations recruiting through ALA publications or placement services comply with ALA anti-discrimination policies. Policy 64.3 states that "ALA is committed to equality of opportunity for all library employees or applicants for employment, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, age, physical or mental handicap, individual lifestyle, or national origin." By advertising through ALA services, the organization agrees to comply with this policy.
WEB PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT SPECIALIST/
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, C&RL NEWS

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES:
Reporting to the Executive Director, this position has two main responsibilities: 1) Web product development—to conceptualize new products and services appropriate for distance delivery using vehicles such as the Web, to develop plans for and implement these new programs, and to work with members in developing viable new ideas; and 2) Editorial—to deliver a print and electronic magazine, C&RL News, to members and subscribers 11x/year. This position includes managerial, supervisory, and financial responsibility. The position is responsible for generating revenues to cover the expenses of producing C&RL News and to cover expenses of new programs. The person in this position will be most effective with a strong awareness of issues facing academic libraries and the higher education community.

Web and Product Development Responsibility:
This person is responsible for analyzing market trends and interests of academic libraries and conceptualizing new products and services that meet these trends and interests. Includes assessing viability of these new products and services; recommending those to bring to market; coordinating the various staff, member groups, departments, and outside services needed to develop the product; and overseeing the launch. Such products might include a portal for members, digital access to ACRL publications for members only, on-demand pay-per-view services to nonmembers, Web CT courses, and other products as determined.

Editorial Responsibility:
The editor-in-chief is responsible for all content in C&RL News. This content is developed through solicitation of manuscripts and reports on conferences, writing a monthly news column and an editorial, maintaining and developing relationships with potential authors and column editors, soliciting graphic materials for covers and inside. Other duties include responsibility for planning and seeing that each issue is produced accurately (and in adherence to the standards of the Chicago Manual of Style) and on time; planning and implementing marketing plans to ensure revenue streams for advertising and subscriptions; preparing circulation and audit reports; selecting printing and mailing services and negotiating contracts as needed; maintaining postal permits and preparing annual Statement of Ownership. The editor-in-chief supervises the work of three staff members, member authors, and contributors and is ultimately responsible for the integrity of the final product. The editor-in-chief also works with a member editorial board.

EDUCATION:
Required: B.A. or B.S. Preferred: MLS from an ALA-accredited program or equivalent.

BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE:
Three years of strong Web technology and/or writing and editing experience; knowledge of Web and computer technology to conceptualize, implement, and deliver new products and services; demonstrated experience with creative applications of innovative technologies for teaching and learning; a record of involvement in recommending, developing, and implementing programs. Prefer experience working in an academic library, writing, and/or editing for publication.

This position requires attention to detail; flexibility; good judgment; maturity; and evidence of a managerial demeanor. Strong interpersonal, written, and oral communication skills are important.

SALARY: $48,000-54,000.

TO APPLY: Send application no later than August 10, 2001, to:

American Library Association
Human Resources Department
50 East Huron Street
Chicago, IL 60611

The American Library Association is an equal opportunity employer. Applications are invited from women, minorities, and people with disabilities.
The Colorado Open Records Act (C.R.S. 24-72-204) requires a written advanced degree in American history or a related field preferred. Some positions and cataloging. Researches and catalogs materials on the Ameri­ 2001 ' and will continue until the position is filled. The ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN.
such a request may be open records and may be disclosed.

The Library, with 377,074 square feet of floor space and seating for over 3,500 students, has over one million volumes and maintains a periodical collection of 4,000 titles.

Candidates must possess significant experience with a university or comparable library in leadership, research, or other relevant roles and must possess eligibility for senior appointment to the faculty;
substantial and demonstrated progressive managerial and senior-level administrative experience, including budget and personnel matters, preferably within a university or comparable library; strong interpersonal skills with demonstrated ability to interact and work effectively with librarians, staff, faculty, and students in a diverse community; substantial evidence of ability to provide leadership and make decisions while working successfully and collaboratively with others in a collegial administrative style; demonstrated evidence of effective written and oral communication skills, and evidence of ability to generate external funds. Candidates must also possess an understanding of the evolving role of electronic library technology in the academic library. Desirable qualifications include possession of an earned doctorate, an ALA-accredited graduate degree in Library Science; demonstrated evidence of community involvement and leadership; experience in a collective bargaining environment, and an understanding of and development of projects or activities responsive to the changing needs of the disciplines in the University.

This is a full-time position defined in the Management Personnel Plan of the California State University. Salary and benefits are competitive and commensurate with experience and credentials. Candidates must submit application materials to:

Office of Academic Affairs
Box Library
California State University, Sacramento
6000 J Street
Sacramento, CA 95819-6016

Applications must include the following: A letter of application, current vitae/résumé, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least three references who can speak to professional qualifications (not all from the same institution). The letter of application should address the applicant's qualifications with specific reference to the required skills, knowledge, and abilities listed above. Review of applications will begin October 1, 2001, and will continue until the position is filled.

CSUS is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.

2001, and will continue until the position is filled. The University of Colorado at Denver is committed to excellence through inclusiveness.
The Colorado Open Records Act (C.R.S. 24-72-204) requires a written request for confidentiality at the time of application. Applications without such a request may be open records and may be disclosed.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN. Autry Museum of Western Heritage seeks librarian for positions in Western Americana research collection. Good opportunity for person interested in building a career in special collections and cataloging. Researches and catalogs materials on the Ameri­ Can West, including books, serials, maps, scripts, visual materials, scores, recordings, and ephemera. Position will include training to use our online databases, R.L., and Inopac. MLS required; additional advanced degree in American history or a related field preferred. Some experience in an academic or research library, and knowledge of all of the MARC formats and AACR2 required. Anticipated starting salary in the mid $30s. The Autry Museum is an active equal opportunity employer.
Please send letter of application and résumé to: Attn.: Human Resources, Autry Museum of Western Heritage, 4700 Western Heritage Way, Los Angeles, CA 90027-1462. Interested applicants may contact the Research Center at: room@autry-museum.org for further information.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR/LIBRARIAN AND INFORMATION SPE­ CIALIST. The Mississippi State University Libraries and the MSU Meridian campus seek applicants for the tenure-track position of Assistant Professor/Librarian and Information Specialist, Meridian Campus. Qualifications: ALA-accredited MLS required; documented and recent profes­sional library experience in an academic environment which must include reference assistance and teaching; utilization of emerging technologies with
DIRECTOR OF LIBRARY SERVICES

Benedictine University, Lisle, IL, which just opened a new state of the art library is seeking a Director of Library Services. Responsible for directing the library program and services, including planning, budgeting, collection development, staff supervision and evaluation, and public relations; keeps abreast of new technological developments leading the library staff in planning and implementing the integration of new technologies with existing services and resources; works with the Director of Information Technology and the Technology Governance Committee to insure that the library has technology necessary to provide electronic information resources to the campus community; member of Academic Council; reports to the Provost and V.P. Academic Affairs.

Qualifications: ALA accredited MLS; minimum 6 years experience; demonstrated management skills; analytical skills, communication skills, computer literacy; team orientation; flexibility, financial management skills.

Application Process: Review of applications begins August 15, 2001; applications will be accepted until position is filled; Position available January 1, 2002; Please send cover letter, resume, salary history and 3 reference letters to:

Office of Employee Services
Benedictine University
5700 College Road
Lisle, IL 60532

Benedictine University is an equal opportunity employer. Women and minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

EDUCATION

discuss intensive work in a networked teaching and learning environment, including the Internet, Web, and other multimedia and electronic resources; broad experience with a wide variety of print and electronic reference materials; demonstrated ability to work independently, collaborate as a part of a team and as a leader; excellent oral and written communication/presentation skills. Subject master's degree preferred. Reports to the Dean of Libraries through the Dean of the Meridian campus. Salary: $35,000——$40,000, commensurate with qualifications and experience. See full description at: http://library.msstate.edu/jobsopen.htm. Applications accepted through June 15, 2001, or until suitable applicant is found. Submit application, résumé, names, addresses, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of three current professional references to: Debra Fairbrother, Administrative Assistant to the Dean, University Libraries, P.O. Box 5408, Mississippi State, MS 39762. Mississippi State University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.

BUSINESS/REFERENCE LIBRARIAN. (Assistant Librarian rank) Louisiana State University seeks an energetic and innovative individual for the position of Business/Reference Librarian. This individual will provide reference, research assistance, instruction, collection development, and liaison duties in support of programs in Business, Economics, and Agricultural Economics. The individual is expected to meet requirements for promotion and tenure. For a detailed description of the position, go to: http://www.lib.lsu.edu/lib/jobs/index.html. Qualifications: Required: MLS from an ALA-accredited library school; undergraduate degree in the areas of business and/or economics; ability to create Web pages; ability to work both independently and collegially in a demanding and rapidly changing environment; excellent interpersonal, communication, and organizational skills; and evidence of ability to meet tenure requirements. Preferred: Graduate degree or graduate course work in business and/or economics; familiarity with current bibliographic and reference sources in business; experience in collection development, reference work, and/or bibliographic instruction; and record of ability to develop and implement effective, innovative public service, instruction, outreach projects, services, or programs. Salary and benefits: $31,500 per fiscal year minimum, dependent upon qualifications and experience; 12-month, tenure-track appointment; excellent benefits. Application: Review of applications will begin July 31, 2001, and will continue until position is filled.
Cornell University Library
Public Services Librarian, Nestle Library, Hotel School of Administration

Cornell University is seeking a creative, highly motivated individual to join the Nestle Library public services team. The Nestle Library is renowned for housing the largest single collection of hospitality related materials in the world. Subjects covered include: travel/tourism, lodging, food service, meetings and conventions, special events, cooking and core business topics such as human resources, financial accounting, management and communications.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Provide instruction and reference services to students, faculty, administrators and staff at the School of Hotel Administration, and to the Cornell community. Develop expertise in the resources of the hospitality industry and participate in collection development for hospitality literature and electronic resources. In a team environment, develop and manage special projects in support of the School of Hotel Administration’s mission to create and disseminate knowledge to the global hospitality industry. Examples include: developing and marketing a commercially viable full-text database of hospitality literature, and designing library products for distributive learning initiatives.

QUALIFICATIONS: Required: ALA-accredited master’s degree in library/information science or equivalent graduate degree. Evidence of excellent customer service skills. Excellent verbal and written communication skills. Strong computer, presentation, organization and interpersonal skills. Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines. Ability to work well with a diverse, international clientele. Commitment to professional development. Previous library service and/or reference experience. Preferred: Specific subject knowledge or work experience in the hospitality industry or business/management. Evidence of innovative ideas and creativity.

APPLICATION: Applications are requested by July 31, 2001, but will be accepted until the position is filled. Salary and rank will be dependent upon qualifications and experience. Please submit letter of application, résumé, and names, addresses, and phone numbers of three references to:

Susan Markowitz, Director
Library Human Resources
201 Olin Library, Cornell University
Ithaca, New York 14853-5301
e-mail: libhr@cornell.edu

Cornell University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and Educator strongly committed to diversity. We value qualified candidates who can bring to our community a variety of backgrounds and experiences.

Cornell University Library
"C&RL News • July/August 2001/753"
HEAD CATALOGER
Saint Anselm College

Located in Manchester, New Hampshire, 50 miles north of Boston, Saint Anselm College is a Catholic institution in the Benedictine tradition. Recognized as a leader among small liberal arts colleges in the Northeast by US News and World Report, Saint Anselm serves approximately 1,900 undergraduate students (www.anselm.edu).

The Geisel Library is seeking an energetic Librarian for the full-time position of Head Cataloger. This new position reflects an increased need for online bibliographic control of both traditional and electronic resources and reports to the Head of Technical Services. Responsibilities include routinely performing standardized original and complex cataloging in all formats; providing ongoing guidance to cataloging staff and managing department procedures manual; leading staff in the use of developing standards and tools, including MARC cataloging services; promoting efficient and accurate cataloging, and overseeing realization of cataloging goals and objectives. Perform other duties as needed, including automated database authority control, systems tasks, reference services, and preservation activities.

QUALIFICATIONS: An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent; advanced knowledge of and experience with AACR2r, USMARC21, LCSH, LCCS, OCLC, and standard authority control procedures required; also requires the ability to solve cataloging problems, strong computing skills, and the ability to implement new cataloging standards and procedures. Supervisory experience in technical services and the ability to succeed autonomously preferred. Salary is $31,500 (35 hours per week) with generous benefits package.

Interested candidates may send a cover letter, résumé, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three professional references to:

Human Resources
Saint Anselm College
100 Saint Anselm Drive
Manchester, NH 03102-1310

Equal opportunity employer

COLLECTIONSMANAGEMENTLIBRARIAN. The Museum of Modern Art Library seeks candidates for the position of Librarian, Collections Management. This senior management position coordinates all technical aspects of acquisitions, processing, and cataloging of library materials. This includes training and documentation of local policies and formulating and revising workflows. The incumbent to this position will also oversee the operation of Endeavor's Voyager system including training, documentation of local policies, and the extension of these services to other departments. Successful candidates should have an MLS from an ALA-accredited program, with an additional master's degree preferred. A proven knowledge of all library procedures in an automated library environment is essential. Given the nature of the collections, experience in research libraries/special collections, especially the history of art, is preferred, in addition to a strong working knowledge of one foreign language. Knowledge of cataloging principles and procedures including AACR2, LC Subject Headings, and USMARC formats, preferably in an RLIN environment, is required. This position will serve as part of the Library's senior management team and, due to the Museum's imminent expansion, this position is a key one in redesigning the Library's organizational structure. Qualified candidates will have strong verbal and written communication skills, experience in procedure development and writing documentation, and superior organizational skills. We offer a competitive salary with generous benefits. Please send c.v. and cover letter to: The Museum of Modern Art, Recruiter, LCM, 11 West 53rd Street, New York, NY 10019; or via e-mail to: jobs@moma.org. More information on the Museum and its research resources may be found at: www.moma.org.

CURATORANDARCHIVISTFORSPECIALCOLLECTIONS. Stiegl Library, Northern Kentucky University. Northern Kentucky University invites applications for a Curator and Archivist for Special Collections. Responsibilities: Provides access and care to materials in Special Collections and Archives, including manuscripts, photographs, student theses, university records, ephemera, etc.; creates finding aids; provides reference assistance to users of the collection; supervises student employees; responsible for preservation and conservation of materials in Stiegl Library; maintains relations with donors; and coordinates university func-
Library Director
Nichols College seeks a full-time director to administer all library functions including needs assessment, planning, policy development, staffing, budget oversight, collections maintenance and technological library services. Will act as liaison to faculty and professional library associations. Oversees development/maintenance of the college library electronic information environment, including library web page. Plan/administer satellite campus delivery services and interlibrary loan function.

An MLS from an ALA-accredited institution and five (5) years progressively responsible administrative experience in an academic library required. Must have a thorough knowledge of electronic reference techniques, OCLC, library automation systems and academically responsive collections development.

Salary is negotiable and commensurate with expertise and experience. A generous benefits package including tuition reimbursement is included. Application review will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Send letter of application, resume, and names, addresses and telephone numbers of three (3) references to: Richard Woods, Director of Human Resources, Nichols College, P.O. Box 5000, Dudley, MA 01571-5000 or via email to: rick.woods@nichols.edu

Nichols College is an equal opportunity employer and encourages women and minorities to apply.

Serials/Acquisitions Department Head

Working under the direct supervision of the Director, Library Collections and Access Services, you will provide direction and operational management of the DePaul University Libraries serials, acquisitions and binding functions, with immediate supervision of materials budget encumbrance and expenditure; monitor relation between library acquisitions accounts and the University financial system; resolve problems with Accounts Payable/library vendors; manage all automated serials/acquisitions systems; and act as library liaison for these systems (Innovative Interfaces, OCLC, ILLIAMS, and ILLINET Online) to resolve problems and implement enhancements or changes. Additionally, you will analyze costs and efficiencies of overall serial, acquisitions, and binding operations; develop, formalize and maintain departmental policies and procedures; supervise staff of seven paraprofessionals and several part-time. The ability to assist the Director in technical services policy making and automation planning including shared systems maintenance, systems integration, and adoption of new automated systems a must.

MLS from ALA accredited library school; 3+ years increasing supervisory experience in an automated technical services environment; 2-3 years experience with serials and acquisition functions; strong knowledge/experience monitoring library encumbrances and expenditures; and the ability to foster teamwork in a diverse environment required. Second Master's degree in a subject field and experience with electronic resources management highly desirable. Ability to read a second language and experience in cataloging using MARC formats, DDC, and LCSH preferred.

DePaul University offers competitive salaries and benefit-in-class benefits including medical, dental, life, retirement plan, and generous vacation package and tuition assistance for yourself and dependents.

Send resume to: Linda Morrissett, Director of Library Collections and Access Services, DePaul University Libraries, 2350 N. Kenmore Ave., Chicago, IL 60614. Fax: (773) 235-7869. Email: lmorrissett@wpdepaun.edu Or call: (773) 235-7860 - Lincoln Park Campus – or (312) 362-8166 - Loop Campus. DePaul University is committed to diversity and equality in education and employment.
COORDINATOR, INFORMATION SERVICES

Drake University

Drake University, located in Des Moines, Iowa, is a comprehensive, selective university with an innovative student-centered curriculum that blends the liberal arts with professional training. Cowles Library serves a student body of 5,200 and has established itself as a campus leader in the development and deployment of knowledge resources in the electronic format. The library also has a growing information literacy program that is integrated into the Drake curriculum. This position is an exciting opportunity for someone interested in professional growth, set against a highly collaborative and supportive environment.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The library seeks a proactive professional to provide leadership and expertise for reference services, government documents, and information literacy instruction. Supervise and mentor the work of four library faculty, support, and student staff. This individual is expected to establish and maintain a close working partnership with teaching faculty in order to: identify emerging service and instructional needs; aggressively market library services and resources; and undertake assessments of service quality. This individual will serve as a member of the Library Management Council (LMC) and will work closely with that collaborative group, and the information services staff, to develop and implement new approaches to the delivery of reference services. The Coordinator of Information Services will lead the ongoing development of both the print and digital versions of the reference collection. This person will report to the Dean of the Library. Participation in professional activities is strongly encouraged and supported. The incumbent will be required to maintain a flexible public service schedule.

QUALIFICATIONS: Required: ALA-accredited MLS; library public service experience, including library instruction; experience with electronic library services and products; demonstrated experience with planning of services; experience with marketing and promotion of services; ability to organize and implement projects; and ability to work in a collegial, team-structured organization that promotes collaboration and the sharing of knowledge. Preferred: Supervisory experience with demonstrated ability to mentor and develop staff; demonstrated ability to collaborate with teaching faculty; and second advanced degree.

SALARY: Minimum $40,000.

RANK: Appointment rank and compensation will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

AVAILABLE: Review of applications will begin August 6, 2001, and continue until an appointment is made.

APPLICATION PROCESS: A full position description is available at: http://www.drake.edu/lib/job.html. Applicants should submit a letter addressing position qualifications, along with a complete vitae and contact information (including e-mail addresses) for three references to:

Rod Henshaw
Dean, Cowles Library
Drake University
2507 University Avenue
Des Moines, IA 50311

DEAN OF LIBRARY AND LEARNING SERVICES. Marymount University of Arlington, Virginia, invites applications and nominations for the position of Dean of Library and Learning Services. The Dean reports to the VP for Academic Affairs, holds faculty rank, and is responsible for all aspects of leadership and management of the programs, staff, and services of the Library and Learning Services. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience, see the University Web site. Consideration of applications will begin July 15, 2001. Applications accepted until the position is closed or filled. For official application, contact Personnel: (703) 284-1680; or jobs@marymount.edu or apply online at: www.marymount.edu/facultypositions. Include resume, cover letter, salary requirements, list of reference, and philosophy statement with official application. Current authorization to work in U.S. required. Position #1001. Marymount University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.

DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL COLLECTIONS. The Fondren Library, Rice University, seeks an experienced, energetic, and innovative Director of Special Collections to administer rare and special book collections, manuscript collections, and the Rice University archives. The Director is responsible for planning and managing projects which will link traditional manuscript, archives, and book processing and service activities with digital initiatives, including the conversion of finding aids to electronic media. This position also explores new methods of research support and outreach using special collections materials and incorporation of Special Collections into mainstream user service and instruction. The position reports to the Director of Fondren Library. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to work with the retiring Director during a period of transition.

Responsibilities: The Director of Special Collections is responsible for the planning, organizing, and ongoing support of the work of Special Collections, and for long-term planning and strategic development of the department in support of the fundamental goals of the Fondren Library. This position actively promotes use of the collections by fostering positive donor relationships, encouraging user education, performing community outreach, and ongoing support of the work of Special Collections.

July/August 2001
RESOURCES SERVICES LIBRARIAN FOR HISTORY, SOCIOLOGY, AND POLITICAL SCIENCE
Johns Hopkins University

Johns Hopkins University seeks a client- and technology-centered librarian to serve the teaching and research needs of the History, Sociology, and Political Science departments and the related distance education courses and programs in the School of Arts and Sciences. The incumbent will have the opportunity to participate in the Brandeis model of reference service delivery, to develop innovative services for the assigned client groups, to build and develop the relevant print and digital collections, and to work closely with faculty and students in a liaison-focused library and in developing online courses and projects.

Under the general direction of the Head of Resource Services, develops and delivers a range of traditional and innovative library services that facilitate the research and teaching needs of the faculty and students in the assigned departments. Fulfilling these responsibilities includes cultivating strong relationships with faculty and students, selecting resources for the collection, providing subject-related consultative and instructional services, facilitating awareness of the rich array of available services, and developing Web-based resources in assigned subject areas. The Sheridan Libraries are strongly committed to diversity. A strategic goal of the Libraries is to "work toward achieving diversity when recruiting new and promoting existing staff."

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:
- MLS from an ALA-accredited library school; advanced degree in History, Sociology, or Political Science or experience serving a similar user population; at least two years of collection development and/or reference experience in a library; knowledge of two western European languages; and demonstrated ability to conduct seminars and instructional programs.

For a more detailed job description and position qualifications and to apply online, please go to: http://jobs.jhu.edu/; or send résumé, indicating job #SALA3038 on cover letter, via e-mail to: hwdjobs@jhu.edu; fax to: (410) 516-2314; or mail to:

Johns Hopkins University
Human Resources
119 Garland Hall
3400 N. Charles Street
Baltimore, MD 21218

Approximate starting salary range: $43,402–$54,430. We offer a smoke-free and drug-free environment.

Affirmative action, equal opportunity employer
TWO POSITIONS AVAILABLE

George Mason University

University Libraries of George Mason University is seeking experienced, innovative, and team-oriented librarians for two management positions:

Head, Collection Development and Preservation Officer (Search Re-opened)

Provides leadership for collection development and evaluation, and preservation activities of a large university library system (four libraries across three campuses); coordinates the collection evaluation and development responsibilities of 20+ selectors, and chairs the systemwide collection development group; directly supervises 2.5 FTE.

Other specific responsibilities include: Monitors expenditure of collection development/preservation funds (currently $4.35M), recommends fund allocations, and assists in the preparation of research materials budget proposals; manages the libraries’ electronic resources licensing operations; actively engages in related activities for two consortia: VIVA (The Virtual Library of Virginia) and WRLC (Washington Research Library Consortium); prepares management reports and analyses, obtains collections data, and oversees maintenance of collection development electronic data archive; and manages multiple approval plans, and may have subject liaison responsibilities, depending on interest and expertise. As first preservation officer at the university libraries, leads integration of current activities into development and implementation of a new, comprehensive preservation program.

Position reports to Associate University Librarian for Resources and Collection Management Services.

QUALIFICATIONS: Required: ALA-accredited MLS or ALA-recognized foreign equivalent; significant professional collection development experience in an academic or research library; in-depth knowledge of academic publishing (print and electronic); experience with large-scale or in-depth collection evaluation projects (RLG Conspectus a plus); demonstrated ability to coordinate peer responsibilities in a non-supervisory, team environment; excellent leadership and communication skills. Preferred: Excellent information technology skills; substantial budget experience; demonstrated supervisory experience; electronic resources management experience, especially with licensing; and an advanced degree in an academic discipline.

Coordinator of Reference/Instruction Services

Johnson Center Library

The Johnson Center Library (JCL) provides educational and informational services to the university community in a non-traditional, multi-service center located on the Fairfax Campus. The JCL’s reference progressively increasing responsibility, including personnel supervision. A second master’s degree or an earned doctorate will be considered a plus. Salary and benefits are competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience. This is a 12-month, renewable, non-tenure-track position with faculty status, available September 1, 2001. The search will begin immediately and remain open until the position is filled. Candidates should send a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, and names and addresses of five references to: Library Director/Search Office of the Dean, Catawba College, Salisbury, NC 28104. Applications may also be sent as MSWord attachments by e-mail to: christie@catawba.edu. Catawba College discriminates solely on the basis of objective qualifications and demonstrated merit.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL LIBRARIAN. Joint Library/Teacher Education Department Position. Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania seeks a highly motivated, energetic individual to provide leadership to develop a model library program for the university’s new laboratory school, nursery through grade five. This unique tenure-track position will begin August 2001. Finalists will be selected on the basis of demonstrated teaching effectiveness, experience, and enthusiasm for providing service. An ALA-accredited library degree is required, as well as the ability to meet Pennsylvania teacher/librarian certification. An advanced degree in an academic discipline. Experience with geospatial data management, digital imaging, and metadata standards and practices. Preferred: Degree or coursework in relevant subject area. Collection data management, digital imaging, and metadata standards and practices. Preference will be given to candidates who are familiar with GIS software and have additional technology experience. Salary and Benefits: Salary and rank are negotiable and competitive dependent upon qualifications and experience. This is a tenure-track academic appointment that includes eligibility for sabbatical leaves. Benefits include a university health care plan, TIAA-CREF retirement/annuity plan, group life insurance, and liberal vacation and sick leave.

HEAD OF GEOLOGY LIBRARY. Indiana University Libraries, Bloomington. The Head of the Geology Library is responsible for the leadership and overall management of the Geology Library, including planning, supervising, and evaluating the library’s services, operations, and collections. Provides bibliographic instruction and reference services including the development of Web services for the Geology Library. Manages the Geology Library collection based on the needs of current and future constituents, including transfer to off-site shelving of low-use materials. Manages electronic resources management experience, especially with licensing; and an advanced degree in an academic discipline.

(continued on next page)
and instructional services form a key component of the university libraries' reference program and growing information literacy initiative.

Specific responsibilities include: Supervision, training, mentoring, and evaluation of librarians and reference support staff (three librarians and four classified staff); management of reference desk schedule; assignment of instructional sessions to reference staff; coordination of collection development activities for circulating collection; development and management of the reference collection; compilation and submission of statistical and other reports; management of budget for reference student employees. In addition, provides direct reference and instruction service to library users. Collaborates with JCL's Coordinator of Circulation and Reserves regarding services and facilities, and with reference heads/coordinators at the other university libraries on service standards and collection issues; and serves on the university libraries' Reference and Instruction Planning Committee and Management Group.

Position reports to Associate University Librarian for Distributed Libraries.

QUALIFICATIONS: Required: ALA-accredited MLS or foreign equivalent; academic library reference/instruction experience with print and online resources; at least four years of management experience in progressively responsible positions; effective oral and written communication skills; ability to work in collaborative team environment; ability to meet requirements for reappointment and promotion. Preferred: Collection development experience; expertise with new information technologies; second master's degree or post MLS coursework.

APPPOINTMENT: Both are 12-month Professional Faculty positions. Salary: Competitive, based upon the successful candidates' qualifications and experience. Benefits: Excellent benefits package includes health plan options; paid life insurance; several retirement plans, including TIAA-CREF; 24 vacation days and 11 paid holidays; tuition waiver for self; and relocation assistance.

APPLICATION: Send letter of application, résumé, and names, addresses (including e-mail), and phone numbers of three current references to:

Chair, <Position Title> Search Committee
Library Administration, MSN 2FL
George Mason University
Fairfax, VA 22030-4444

Review of applications for both positions will begin August 1, 2001.

Affirmative action, equal opportunity employer; women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

INFORMATION LITERACY COORDINATOR/ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF BIBLIOGRAPHY. The University Libraries at the University of Akron seeks an energetic, dynamic librarian to join its faculty and to lead its teaching and instruction programs. Duties and Responsibilities: The library seeks a proactive professional to initiate, lead, and foster projects and initiatives in the development of a comprehensive information literacy program. The person will design a program that will effectively integrate information skills into the university teaching/learning experience through a variety of offerings. This individual will partner with university librarians and teaching faculty to achieve three primary goals: assessment of emerging instructional needs with regard to information literacy skills; development and delivery of new learning opportunities and course enhancements; and assessment and evaluation of all library instructional services and resources. Furthermore, this individual will have the technical and creative abilities to help design and organize Web sites and other electronic tools in support of instructional aims. This person must also meet requirements and obligations for professional service activities as defined by faculty guidelines. Required Qualifications: MLS from an ALA-accredited institution; demonstrated ability to plan, organize, develop, implement, and assess a program of instruction; demonstrated knowledge of information skills associated with information literacy; evidence of teaching experience; familiarity with electronic resources; demonstrated effective oral and written communication skills; a strong service orientation; and the ability to work and coordinate activities within a team-structured organization that promotes collaboration and sharing of knowledge in a diverse educational environment. Preferred Qualifications: A second master's in a related field, such as instructional design or...
The New Brunswick Campus Libraries seeks energetic and innovative individuals for the following positions:

Sciences Digital Initiatives Librarian: Provide leadership in developing an intellectual framework and technological platform for digital library initiatives in the sciences. Examples of these initiatives are web-based reference and instruction, electronic publishing, and integrating the use of advanced tools and applications of multimedia and emerging technologies to improve access to information. The successful candidate will be based at the Library of Science and Medicine and will serve as a link between the services of the Scholarly Communication Center (SCC) (http://www.scc.rutgers.edu) and Science Departments in the areas of Geology, Geography, Earth Sciences, and Engineering. Work experience or an academic background in the Sciences and knowledge of geospatial processing software is preferred. (APP #152)

Humanities Digital Initiatives Librarian: Provide leadership in developing an intellectual framework and technological platform for digital library initiatives for the arts and humanities. Examples include digitizing texts, sound and images, as well as other advanced multimedia applications. Will join a team of librarians and staff in the SCC responsible for developing digital services for research and reference. This position will also coordinate the activities of CETH - Center for Electronic Texts in the Humanities (www.ceth.rutgers.edu). Advanced degrees in Humanities or Fine Arts preferred. (APP #153)

Both positions will collaborate with faculty on digital library initiatives, provide public services in both the traditional and digital environments; participate in the user education program, and development/maintenance of WWW pages. Research, publication, and involvement in professional associations are expected. Must have a demonstrated understanding of digital library environments including knowledge of current issues, practices, technologies and standards. These tenure track positions require a Master's degree from an ALA accredited institution and experience with information technologies including multiple computer platforms and operating systems. Minimum salary for Librarian III starts at $42,987. Non-U.S. citizens must be authorized to work in the U.S. For complete position profiles, see our website at http://www.libraries.rutgers.edu/ under “News and Events”.

Candidates applying by September 1, 2001 will receive first consideration. Submit resume, cover letter, and names of three references to: Sandra Troy (APP #1), Libraries Personnel Officer, Rutgers University Libraries, 169 College Ave., New Brunswick, NJ 08901; FAX: 732-932-7637; e-mail: stroy@rci.rutgers.edu.

Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, is committed to affirmative action and equal opportunity.

---

INFORMATION SPECIALIST. The Norris Medical Library of the University of Southern California is seeking applicants for an Information Specialist (Librarian I and II) beginning July 1, 2001. Responsibilities: Participate in all reference and information services, including reference desk, consultation services, performing online searches, assisting users to develop search strategies, and answering online reference questions. Share responsibility for reference collection development and library Web pages. Participate in an extensive program of user education with emphasis on instruction in computer-based information systems, the Internet, and the use of library resources. Teach classes, develop course content, and design instructional materials, both print and electronic. Coordinate the maintenance and development of the library’s Web site. Propose and support Web initiatives throughout the library. Conduct usability studies and suggest improvements and enhancements for the site. Develop and teach classes on Web authoring. Participate in special projects such as the promotion of personal digital assistants among health care professionals and the development of curriculum-based class instruction in contemporary technologies including multiple computer platforms and operating systems.

University of Akron, Akron, OH 44325-1701. Review of applications will begin on July 15, 2001, and will continue until position is filled. The University of Akron is an equal education and employment institution.
The Thomas J. Watson Library, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, invites applications and nominations for the position of Bibliographer/Acquisitions Librarian. This key position in Watson Library coordinates collection development activities and provides leadership in building library collections, both print and electronic. Responsibilities include selection of all western European-language materials; coordinating the activities of the Asian-language selectors; managing the acquisitions budget; supervision of acquisitions staff (3 FTE); and coordinating with Technical Services staff to ensure efficient pre-order searching, order record creation and processing of incoming material. This position also participates in preservation and replacement decisions, obtains appropriate out of print and rare book material, and participates in the selection of material for off-site storage. This position is a member of the Library Management Group and reports directly to the Chief Librarian.

Watson Library is one of the most comprehensive art research libraries in the world. There is a total staff of 45, including 16 librarians. The library contains approximately 500,000 volumes, including monographs and exhibition catalogs, over 5,000 periodical titles, more than 100,000 auction and sale catalogs, collections of autograph letters, and extensive ephemeral files relating to individual artists and to the history of the Museum. Watson also houses the Hazen Center for Electronic Information Resources. The primary responsibility of the Bibliographer/Acquisitions Librarian is to maintain the distinctiveness of the collection through thoughtful and careful selection.

Qualifications:
- MLS and a strong knowledge of the history of art (graduate degree is preferred); a broad interest in past and present publications in the history of art; a record of progressively responsible experience in collection development in an academic or research library; working knowledge of two European languages; knowledge of research library collection development issues; experience with the international market for current art historical publications; familiarity with the rare book trade; experience in budget allocation and management; demonstrated initiative, flexibility and ability to work creatively in a collaborative and rapidly changing environment; excellent managerial, organizational, supervisory and written and verbal communication skills; the ability to articulate and communicate a vision for quality in collection development. Working experience with RLIN and Innovative Interfaces, or other integrated system. A commitment to maintain the depth and distinctiveness of Watson Library's collection.

Please mail letter of application and resume to: The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Department of Human Resources MW-BAL, 1000 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10028-0198. EOE
TWO POSITIONS AVAILABLE
National-Louis University

National-Louis University seeks two Library professionals.

Coordinator of Baker Demonstration School Library: (LIB0101) Evanston, Illinois
Work with children (ages 3–14), faculty, and college students. Responsibilities include development of children’s collection; assisting patrons with online catalog, electronic databases, and Internet; storytelling; teaching information literacy skills; and providing curriculum support. MLS/MIS with experience in children's library required. Instructor or assistant professor rank, non-tenure-track, 10-month faculty position. Anticipated start date September 4, 2001.

Public Services Librarian: (LIB0201) Wheaton, Illinois
Teach library research skills; provide reference and research consulting; assist patrons with online catalog, electronic databases, and Internet; plan and implement new electronic services such as electronic reference, electronic reserves, or online tutorials. MLS/MIS with public services and teaching experience and travel to Chicago-area campuses required. Instructor or assistant professor rank, non-tenure-track, 12-month faculty position. Available July 1, 2001.

Send résumé and vitae to:
National-Louis University
Attention: Provost’s Office (Job Code)
2840 Sheridan Road
Evanston, IL 60201
Fax: (847) 256-1057

Equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

RARE BOOKS CATALOGER. (Colonial Spanish American imprints) The John Carter Brown Library at Brown University is seeking candidates for a temporary, grant-funded cataloguing position. The library specializes in the collection of printed materials pertaining to the Americas, North and South, during the colonial period, 1493 to ca. 1830. The position is a three-year position (with the possibility of renewal) to catalog 18th century French imprints and 18th-19th century British and North American imprints, and requires a reading knowledge of French and a familiarity with Latin. Further Qualifications: ALA-accredited MLS degree or equivalent; 2-3 years of professional rare book cataloguing experience using AACR2-Rev., Descriptive Cataloging of Rare Books, LCSH, and MARC formats; familiarity with the RLIN and Innopac systems. Salary range: $35,000–$38,000. Send letter of application, résume, and names and addresses of three references to: Department of Human Resources, Brown University, Box 1879, Providence, RI 02912. Brown Univ. is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

REFERENCE AND DIGITAL INITIATIVES LIBRARIAN. The University of Dayton's Roach Library is seeking a motivated, service-oriented, technologically proficient librarian. The University of Dayton is one of the nation’s 10 largest Catholic universities and Ohio’s largest private university, with an enrollment of 10,000 students, including 6,400 undergraduates. Roach Library's staff of 16 faculty and 36 paraprofessionals provides support to more than 70 undergraduate and graduate academic programs. Collections include over 1 million volumes and 3,000 serial subscriptions, all accessed by an Innovative Interfaces system. The University Libraries are full members of the OhioLINK consortium. More information about the University of Dayton is available at: http://www.udayton.edu. Reporting to the Head of Client Services, this newly created position will join a client-focused, dynamic reference and instruction team composed of 10 committed and enthusiastic librarians and paraprofessionals. The Reference and Digital Initiatives Librarian will provide daily reference assistance; participate in the evening and weekend reference rotation; and teach in the library instruction and Information literacy program. Working on projects directed by the University Archivist, this position will help create new digital access and navigational tools for our archival and special collections. The successful candidate will serve as the collection development selector and liaison to the School of Business Administration; participate in library and external committees; and perform other duties as assigned. Required Qualifications: MLS or equivalent from an ALA-accredited program; proficiency in elec-
LIBRARY DIRECTOR

Moravian College and Moravian Theological Seminary

Moravian College and Moravian Theological Seminary invite applications and nominations for the position of Director of Reeves Library.

Moravian College is a selective liberal arts and sciences college in the beautiful Lehigh Valley of Pennsylvania with an enrollment of 1,450 FTE students and 18 academic departments. Besides awarding undergraduate degrees, the college offers master's degrees in business administration and education. Founded in 1742, Moravian College is the sixth oldest college in the nation. As a member of the Lehigh Valley Association of Independent Colleges (LVAIC), Moravian's Reeves Library engages in a variety of cooperative programs with the libraries of Lehigh and DeSales Universities, and of Cedar Crest, Lafayette, and Muhlenberg Colleges.

Moravian Theological Seminary is a graduate-professional school of theology affiliated with the Moravian Church of America. It has an enrollment of 50 FTE students. The Seminary awards three degrees: master of divinity, master of arts in pastoral counseling, and master of arts in theological studies.

Reeves Library houses over 245,000 books, bound periodicals, and other materials in addition to 1,350 current periodical subscriptions in support of the curricula of both the College and the Seminary. The collection includes the Groenfeldt Moravian Collection, a special collection of 6,670 items dealing with the Moravian Church.

Visit our Web site at: http://www.moravian.edu for more information about the College and Seminary.

The Director’s responsibilities include:

• Overseeing and coordinating library services for the College and Seminary
• Collection development in support of the curriculum
• Developing and administering the budget
• Writing grants to seek outside funding to advance the library
• Working with the College and Seminary students and faculty
• Planning, implementing, and assessing strategic goals
• Representing the library on local, regional, and national professional committees
• Supervising the library staff (five professional librarians and six support staff)
• Initiating, organizing, managing, and expanding consortial agreements
• Representing the institution on the LVAIC Council of Library Directors

Qualifications:

• ALA-accredited master’s degree in Library Science
• Second master’s or doctoral degree is desirable
• Minimum of five years’ administrative/ supervisory experience in an academic library
• Strong background in technological innovations in academic libraries and higher education
• Experience with budgeting process
• Grant-writing experience
• Excellent interpersonal, communication, leadership, and organizational skills

Compensation: Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experiences. The Director position is a 12-month position. Moravian College and Moravian Theological Seminary offer a competitive benefits package.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, salary requirements, and three professional references that have granted permission for direct contact to the Chair of the Search Committee. The cover letter should include discussion of their philosophy of liberal education, teaching, and scholarship at institutions with the scope and mission of Moravian College and Moravian Theological Seminary. Applications should be received by September 1, 2001. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Moravian College and Moravian Theological Seminary value diversity and encourage individuals from underrepresented populations to apply.

Application materials should be sent directly to:

Human Resources
Chair, Reeves Library Director Search Committee
Moravian College and Moravian Theological Seminary
1200 Main Street
Bethlehem, PA 18018-6650
E-mail: employment@moravian.edu; fax: (610) 625-7883
The Stanford University Libraries has the following immediate opportunities available.

Instructional Services and Outreach Librarian, Engineering Library

We seek an Instructional Services and Outreach Librarian to manage user education and outreach services at the Engineering Library. Under the general supervision of the Head Librarian of the Engineering Library, you will coordinate, develop and participate in a program of user education with emphasis in instruction of digital resources, the Internet and the use of library resources and services for the Engineering Library. You will also provide in-depth reference service in engineering to faculty, students and staff; work closely with Bibliographers to help identify, select, evaluate, manage and review resources for the collection; and act as a resource for the Science and Engineering Libraries in technology-assisted teaching initiatives.

Requirements include an academic degree in engineering, the physical sciences or equivalent, a Master's degree in Library or Information Science or equivalent, and knowledge of the literature of engineering or the physical sciences and its organization. Effective communication, interpersonal, analytical, organizational and time/project management skills, experience with online searching and digital information formats, and familiarity with the use and application of microcomputers are essential. Experience with collection development in a research library, the ability to evaluate information products and services, and effective and creative teaching skills are highly desired. For appointment at the Associate Librarian rank, experience with collection development in a research library and 3-4 years successful professional experience in an engineering/science research library are required.

To be considered for the Engineering Library position, send a cover letter, a complete statement of qualifications, a full resume of education and relevant experience and the names and addresses of 3 references to Karen Clay, Head Librarian, Engineering, Terman Engineering, Stanford, CA 94305-4029.

Curator for the Social and Behavioral Sciences, Green Library

In this senior role, you will develop and manage research collections and information resources in all media in the subject areas of communications, psychology and sociology. Specific responsibilities include acting as liaison to faculty and graduate and undergraduate students, providing advanced reference and bibliographic assistance, preparing interpretive materials that enhance access to the collections, participating in training the reference staff in the Social Sciences Resource and Information centers, and making budgetary recommendations. Additionally, you will participate in development activities and manage public service activities of the Social Sciences Resource Center.

Requirements include an MLS from an ALA-accredited library school or equivalent in training and experience, teaching experience, graduate training in a subject area of the social sciences (PhD is preferred for the Senior Librarian level), demonstrated team- and project-leadership skills, effective interpersonal and oral/written communication skills, and the ability to work effectively and collegially with library and academic staff and faculty. Reading knowledge of one or more West European languages and knowledge of machine-readable data files and issues and techniques of data analysis in the subjects are preferred.

Compensation will be based on qualifications and experience. To be considered for the Curator position, send a cover letter, a complete statement of qualifications, a full resume of education and relevant experience and the names and addresses of 3 references to Carol Olsen, Director of Human Resources, Stanford University Libraries, 557 Escondido Mall, Stanford, CA 94305-6004. Open until filled.

For information on these and other positions, see us on the Web at http://www-sul.stanford.edu/depts/humres. AA/EOE

Stanford University
HEAD, GIANNINI FOUNDATION OF AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS LIBRARY

University of California, Berkeley

DUTIES: Manages operations and plans for long-term needs of the library; collaborates with various parties in determining priorities and services; consults with the Chair/delegates in related administration; establishes library goals, procedures, and policies in consultation with the Department's Management Services Officer, the Chair, and the Department Library Advisory Committee; supervises library staff, facilities, and equipment; provides instruction in Giannini Library use; prepares bibliographies and instructional guides; may provide course-related instruction in a classroom or in the library; assists primary clientele in obtaining information on site, from the Berkeley campus libraries, and at the UC Davis AgEcon Library, and online; responsible for developing collections at Giannini Library in related subject areas; oversees in-house cataloging of new materials; and oversees recording of faculty publications in the library catalog and on the library's Web site. Professional activity within the field is needed for advancement.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: An MLIS from an ALA-accredited institution, or equivalent degree, with relevant professional experience; three to four years' recent professional experience in managing a research or academic library in a special subject area; excellent oral and written skills; supervisory experience and interpersonal abilities; and strong commitment to excellence in service and ability to work effectively with faculty, staff, and students in a rapidly changing and diverse environment.

SALARY AND RANK: $42,780-$63,840, per annum, commensurate with qualifications. Rank of Associate I to Librarian I.

DEADLINE: Consideration will be given to applications received by August 1, 2001.

Applicants should apply in writing, including with their letter a complete statement of qualifications, a full résumé of their education and relevant experience, and the names, addresses, and phone numbers of three references who are knowledgeable about their qualifications for this position.

You may mail your application package to:

Jeffrey M. Perloff
Chair, Library Recruitment Committee
University of California
Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics and Policy
207 Giannini Hall #3310
Berkeley, CA 94720-3310
Fax: (510) 643-8911; e-mail: perloff@are.berkeley.edu

The University of California is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

For fuller information on this position, see: http://are.berkeley.edu/library/gfvl.pdf.
HEAD, PUBLIC HEALTH LIBRARY — Associate/Full Librarian
$59,832–76,476 per annum, based upon qualifications

The Library of the University of California at Berkeley is seeking an energetic and creative individual to head its Public Health Library, a subject specialty library that supports the teaching, learning, and research activities of the University’s faculty, students, staff, and the broader community of health professionals and the public. In addition to serving these constituencies, this library also provides special information services for California public health agencies, such as the California Department of Health Services (DHS) through contractual arrangements.

The Public Health Library is one of eight Science libraries on the Berkeley campus. Its collection numbers 95,000 volumes and 1,450 current serial titles. The Public Health Library (including a satellite library — the Occupational and Environmental Health Library approximately six miles away in Oakland) has a total staff of 5.65 FTE professionals and 5.5 FTE para-professionals and 4 FTE student library employees.

Internationally renowned, the Berkeley Library is the oldest and largest library in the University of California system, and a major research facility. The Library serves over 23,000 undergraduates, 9,000 graduate students, and almost 1,500 faculty. Current collections number over 9 million volumes and over 56,000 current serial titles. Library facilities on the Berkeley campus include the Doe/Moffitt Library complex, The Bancroft Library, the East Asian Library and more than 20 additional libraries serving subject specialties and the professional schools. The Library is a member of the Center for Research Libraries (CRL) and the Association of Research Libraries (ARL), and is an active participant in the California Digital Library. The Library has a budget of $50 million, and employs over 440 RE, including professional and para-professional staff, and more than 600 part-time students.

SUMMARY OF RESPONSIBILITIES:
Reporting to the Associate University Librarian, Director of Public Services, the Head of the Public Health Library manages the Public Health Library staff and provides overall direction for library programs and services, and acts as the primary liaison to faculty in the School of Public Health and the researchers at the California Department of Health Services. The incumbent is responsible for the departmental library budget as well as regularly negotiating and renewing the contracts with California state agencies. The Head oversees the provision of all contract services, including document delivery, computer literature searching, and current awareness services. The Head coordinates collections and services provided by the Public Health Library, including reference, instruction, circulation, collection development, outreach, and Internet based services. The Head will have responsibility for coordinating the planning and design of a new Public Health Library facility, in close collaboration with the School of Public Health. The Public Health Library will remain in its current location in Warren Hall until such time as the library moves into surge space, scheduled for 2004, and then into new quarters after the construction of the new School of Public Health building.

UCB librarians are expected to participate in library-wide planning and governance, to be able to work comfortably in a shared decision-making environment, and to be active professionally. Professional contributions beyond the primary responsibilities, e.g. active participation in university and professional settings, publications or other research and creative activity, are required for advancement in the Librarian series. Candidates must show evidence of such contributions at the Librarian level, or their promise for a Librarian appointed at the Associate Librarian level.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Required: An MLS from an ALA accredited institution, or equivalent degree, and relevant professional experience. Five years’ progressively responsible experience in a research library. Supervisory experience. Experience in science librarianship with demonstrated ability to evaluate and use appropriate technology to improve staff efficiency and enhances library services. Excellent verbal and written communication skills.

Preferred: Experience in collection development and contract management; experience with facilities planning. Experience in health or life sciences librarianship and knowledge of appropriate information resources. Demonstrated ability to work in a team-oriented work environment; excellent interpersonal skills with ability to lead and collaborate; planning and project management experience; budget management; ability to meet deadlines and to work productively within an environment of rapid development and change; commitment to personal and staff professional development.

The Library at UC Berkeley is committed to the support and encouragement of a multicultural environment and seeks candidates who can make positive contributions in a context of ethnic and cultural diversity.

An exclusive bargaining agent, the American Federation of Teachers (AFT), represents librarians at the University of California. This is a management position and is not included in the bargaining unit.

Deadline: Consideration will be given to applications received by July 30, 2001.

APPLICANTS SHOULD APPLY IN WRITING, INCLUDING WITH THEIR LETTER A COMPLETE STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS, A FULL RESUME OF THEIR EDUCATION AND RELEVANT EXPERIENCE, AND THE NAMES, ADDRESSES, AND PHONE NUMBERS OF THREE REFERENCES WHO ARE KNOWLEDGEABLE ABOUT THEIR QUALIFICATIONS FOR THIS POSITION.

To Apply: Mail your application package to: Barbara Kornstein, Interim Academic Personnel Coordinator, Library Human Resources Department, 447 The Library, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720-6000; FAX: 510-642-6875; or EMAIL: librec@library.berkeley.edu EOE
PHYSICAL SCIENCES LIBRARIAN
Dartmouth College

The Dartmouth College Library seeks an energetic and creative information professional with a commitment to providing innovative services and collections to students and faculty in the physical sciences, mathematics, and computer science.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Reporting to the Head of Kresge Physical Sciences Library and Cook Mathematics Library, works as a member of a collaborative team providing information and collection services in a flexible, innovative, and sophisticated information management environment; participates in the development of the Dartmouth Digital Library; provides instruction in information research tools and techniques, on-site and electronic reference, consultation with faculty to determine instructional and research interests, and collection management and development of print and digital materials in selected areas of the physical sciences, mathematics, and computer science; works closely with faculty, undergraduates, and graduate students in these subject areas; develops print and electronic research guides; contributes content and design for the Library Web pages; participates in library initiatives in the sciences, including planning for resources, services, facilities, and special projects.

QUALIFICATIONS: ALA-accredited MLS; educational background in the physical or mathematical sciences; experience in an academic or research environment preferred. The successful candidate will have the ability to work collegially in small group and team environments; science reference, instruction, and information access skills; knowledge of the scientific literature in all formats; experience with current digital collections tools for providing Web-based information resources and services; and familiarity with networked information systems and resources in multiplatform environments.

RANK AND SALARY: Commensurate with education and experience. Minimum salary: $42,000 (Librarian III); $36,000 (Librarian II); $32,000 (Librarian I), plus a comprehensive benefits package and relocation assistance.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE INFORMATION: The Dartmouth College Library is an ARL Library, participating in national and regional endeavors and organizations such as SPARC, JSTOR, and NERL (Northeast Research Libraries Consortium). Dartmouth College offers a lively, intimate university environment with the benefits of rich cultural offerings in a lovely rural setting, within 2-3 hours' drive of both Boston and Montreal. For more information, consult: http://www.dartmouth.edu and http://www.dartmouth.edu/~krescook/home.shtml.

APPLICATION: Review of applications will begin August 1, 2001; applications will be considered until the position is filled. Send résumés to:

Search Committee for Physical Sciences Librarian
Dartmouth College Library
6025 Baker-Berry Library
Hanover, NH 03755-3525

Dartmouth College is an affirmative action, equal opportunity, M/F employer.

REFERENCE LIBRARIAN, The Cline Library at Northern Arizona University invites applications for Reference Librarian. Under the direction of the Head of Reference, the Reference Librarian supports services for a distributed learning environment that accommodates student study and research activities that take place 24/7, wherever students are located. Position also provides reference services primarily using electronic resources. Services are provided in-person, via telephone, e-mail, the Web, Interactive Instructional Television, and occasional travel to NAU's Statewide Academic Program sites; assists students individually and in groups in locating, evaluating, and utilizing information: uses software and instructs others in the use of software for customized information management, communication, and collaboration; includes answering basic telecommunication and network connection questions; collaborates with other Library staff to develop Web-based research tools; actively collaborates with colleagues across departments to design, implement, and continuously improve library services, resources, and operations, based on knowledge of emerging trends in libraries, higher education, distributed learning, and technology; and works a flexible schedule, including evenings and weekends in rotation with other staff. Qualifications: Required: ALA-accredited graduate degree from a library and information science program; one year of experience with Web-based reference sources, services, and research; outstanding commitment to providing resources and services and promoting student research competencies through the use of information technology; demonstrated skill in assisting users in locating, evaluating, and utilizing information; ability to contribute effectively to learner-centered library initiatives and the development of resources, services, and tools for the library's Web site; strong project management and organizational skills; capacity for working flexibly and creatively in a rapidly changing environment; demonstrated proficiency with microcomputer networks, PC troubleshooting, Windows and Web applications, and electronic communication/collaboration tools; basic knowledge of HTML and familiarity with Web authoring tools; and demonstrated interest in professional activities, including participation in local, state, and national professional organizations. For more details, see: http://jan.ucc.nau.edu/~hr/Home/NAU_Jobs/Job_Vacancies/index.php. Send letter of application specifically addressing the qualifications listed above, résumé, and names and addresses of three references to: Reference Librarian Search Committee for Physical Sciences Librarian, The Cline Library at Northern Arizona University, PO Box 13716, Flagstaff, AZ 86011-7161. Applications will be considered until the position is filled.
ASSOCIATE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIAN, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND TECHNICAL SERVICES

University of California, Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara, one of the nine campuses of the University of California system, invites applications and nominations for an Associate University Librarian (AUL), Information Technology and Technical Services.

The AUL reports to the University Librarian and serves as member of the Library Administrative Group. Has line responsibility and provides leadership and management for the planning, development, implementation, and assessment of the university libraries information systems and technical services departments.

The AUL will head the library systems operations and will have direct responsibility for overseeing the online integrated system (currently installing the ExLibris Aleph system), local area network (450 public and staff workstations), desktop applications, library’s Web site, digital library initiatives, hardware and software installation, operation, and maintenance and all library-related telecommunication services. The incumbent will also provide leadership and management for the technical services departments including acquisitions, cataloging, database maintenance, preservation, and serials management. He or she will direct the development, implementation, and evaluation of innovative tools, methods, and strategies for use in acquiring, cataloging, and processing materials. Works with managers and supervisors to establish goals, sets priorities, and is responsible for the overall planning, resource allocation, and administration of the technical services division. The combined technical services departments and the systems operations include approximately 60 FTE and a host of student and limited appointment employees.

QUALIFICATIONS: MLS from an ALA-accredited program; record of responsible leadership and management experience in information technology and/or technical services; knowledge of one or more areas of technical services (cataloging, acquisitions, serials); successful supervisory experience in a complex environment as well as demonstrated decision-making experience, problem-solving ability, and planning skills; demonstrated knowledge, experience, and management of networked environments, integrated library systems, Web architecture, hardware and software applications, servers, and telecommunication systems; strong user-centered approach to technical services and information technology; excellent oral, written, and interpersonal communication skills, including the ability to communicate technical information clearly and effectively; ability to work in a team environment; and demonstrated commitment and sensitivity to diversity in the workplace.

SALARY: Salary commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Consideration of applications begins August 1, 2001, and will continue until the position is filled.

Send résumé and names and addresses of three references to:

Detrice Bankhead
Associate University Librarian
Human Resources
Davidson Library
University of California
Santa Barbara, CA 93106

Complete job announcement available at: http://www.library.ucsb.edu/depts/lpo/.

The University of California is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer committed to diversity in the workplace and invites applications from candidates who can contribute in this area.
Virginia State University is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Systems Librarian. The position reports to the Dean of Library and Media Services.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Responsible for the operation of the integrated library system, currently VTLS, and PC networks, currently NT. Primary responsibility for evaluating and recommending appropriate library information technology innovations for emerging technologies, distance learning and digital initiatives. Plans for and implements technical aspects of licensed electronic journals and databases. Works with library Web team to design and expand Web-based services, including online tutorials and information literacy modules. Serves as primary liaison with the University’s information systems division, the Office of Information Technology.

QUALIFICATIONS: MLS from an ALA-accredited program or master’s degree in computer-related discipline; minimum three years’ professional library experience; demonstrated expertise in working with desktop computer networks, the Internet, and other emerging technologies; demonstrated Web design skills; good analytic and problem-solving skills for initiating plans and carrying out projects; strong verbal and written communication and organizational skills; ability to work independently and with all personnel to achieve established goals and priorities within a team environment.

SALARY: Minimum $40,000; commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Virginia State University is an equal opportunity employer.

REFERENCE/LIBRARIAN/COORDINATOR OF INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES, Steely Library, Northern Kentucky University. Northern Kentucky University invites applications for a Reference Librarian/Coordinator of Instructional Services. Responsibilities: Reporting to the Head of the Reference Department, this position coordinates the instructional activities of the Reference Department by organizing the development of programs and curriculum, promoting services, and evaluating these efforts. The planning and implementation of the instructional services are shared with the Reference Librarians. This position participates in reference and research services and serves as a liaison to assigned academic departments. Night and weekend service is required. Requirements: MLS from an ALA-accredited institution; one to three years of professional experience in an academic library with significant involvement in instructional services; dynamic commitment to the educational role of an academic library; strong interest, experience, and skill in the teaching/learning process; effective written and oral communication skills; and demonstrated ability to work successfully with colleagues and library users. Rank, Salary, and Benefits: This is a 12-month, tenure-track faculty appointment as an Assistant Professor of Library Services. Reappointment, promotion, and tenure are dependent upon job performance, scholarship, and service contributions. Minimum Salary: $35,000, commensurate with experience. Fringe benefits include 25 vacation days, medical/dental insurance, and TIAA-CREF. Application Procedure: Send letter of application, résumé, copies of transcripts, and three letters of reference to: Michael J. Rose, Steely Library, Northern Kentucky University, Nunn Drive, Highland Heights, KY 41099-6101. Applications will be accepted through August 31, 2001. NKU is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. Additional information about NKU is available at: http://www.nku.edu.
THREE POSITIONS AVAILABLE

University of California, San Diego

The Social Sciences and Humanities Library at the University of California, San Diego (UCSD), invites applications from innovative professionals to fill three exciting career-track openings at various levels of appointment. The Social Sciences and Humanities Library comprises the research collections for the social sciences and humanities and provides a full range of services, including information and reference services, outreach and bibliographic instruction, development and delivery of collection resources, circulation, billing, interlibrary loan, course reserves, security, and stacks maintenance. With its ranking as one of the top ten research institutions in the country, UCSD provides the academic benefits of a world-class research university. For complete details for each position, please consult the Library's Web site at: http://orpheus.ucsd.edu/fac/positions.htm.

Assistant Department Head, Access Services

Associate Librarian–Librarian
Hiring Range: $42,780–$70,152

The Social Sciences and Humanities Library invites applications from innovative professionals with a strong public services commitment to provide leadership in the development, coordination, and provision of services that facilitate user access to information resources. The successful candidate will be responsible for planning and managing, including circulation services, interlibrary loan, consortial borrowing programs, course reserves (including electronic reserves), stack management, and the PLUS Information Service, the library's fee-based service. The manager supervises 26 career staff and approximately 15 FTE student employees; stays current with national trends and developments in access services and interlibrary loan; provides leadership to the department in adopting new technologies and new procedures and processes to assure a best practices, continuous improvement model for effective access services delivery.

QUALIFICATIONS: Demonstrated effective experience as a supervisor and the ability to lead and develop staff; extensive knowledge of access services, circulation services, or interlibrary loan unit, preferably in an academic library; demonstrated commitment to quality public services; exceptional initiative, creativity, leadership, acumen, flexibility, and the ability to deal with ambiguity; a clear understanding of the issues impacting libraries, particularly those involving technology; and demonstrated ability to work within a well-established, team-oriented, collaborative, and collegial environment, and to foster this ability in others. [http://orpheus.ucsd.edu/fac/AccessADH.htm]

Assistant Department Head, Reference, Instruction, and Outreach

Associate Librarian–Librarian
Hiring Range: $42,156–$61,848

The Social Sciences and Humanities Library invites applications for the position of Head of Reference, Instruction and Outreach. We seek a dynamic, innovative, and forward-looking individual to provide leadership in a time of rapid technological change.

Reporting to the Head, Social Sciences and Humanities Library, the successful candidate will be responsible for planning and participation in the staffing of the Reference and Information Desks; developing print, electronic, and Internet reference collections in support of disciplines within the social sciences and humanities; managing outreach and instruction programs and services. The Assistant Department Head will supervise two to four public service librarians and staff at a variety of levels at public service points, including the Instruction and Outreach Coordinator.

QUALIFICATIONS: A record of increasing responsibility in an academic or research library; successful supervisory experience with commitment to mentoring, training, and staff development; experience

(continued on next page)
coordinating an array of reference and instructional services; demonstrated commitment to quality public services; a record of innovative reference or instructional programs; exceptional initiative, creativity, leadership, acumen, flexibility, and the ability to deal with ambiguity; well-developed communication, consensus-building, and decision-making skills, along with the ability to facilitate change; experience in a technologically complex setting and knowledge of scholarly communication patterns and other digital issues facing academic libraries. [http://orpheus.ucsd.edu/fac/ReferenceADH.htm]

Instruction and Outreach Coordinator
Assistant Librarian–Associate Librarian

Hiring Range: $37,728–$45,780

This newly created position will provide leadership in planning, implementing, and maintaining an effective library instruction and outreach program in a rapidly changing electronic environment.

The librarian will develop, coordinate, and promote outreach and instruction programs in the use of general library and subject-specific library resources, both print and electronic. The successful candidate will conduct instructional seminars and participate in orientation programs, participate in teaching general and subject-specific sessions and maintain current awareness of emerging technologies in digital and Web-based library instruction. The librarian will provide general reference assistance at a combined social sciences/humanities and government information reference desk, including some night and weekend shifts.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Recent graduates are encouraged to apply. Demonstrated instructional experience in an academic library, preferably in a social sciences and humanities setting; working knowledge of a variety of print, electronic, and Internet reference resources; knowledge of current and emerging technologies in digital and Web-based library instruction; experience with Web development and maintenance; excellent verbal and written communication skills; demonstrated ability to work within a well-established, team-oriented, collaborative, and collegial environment; and strong library service orientation and commitment to professional service and scholarship. The successful candidate will have a record of adaptability, flexibility, and be able to deal with ambiguity. [http://orpheus.ucsd.edu/fac/InstructionCoord.htm]

These librarian positions all require a professional degree from a library school or other appropriate degree, or equivalent experience. Salary for each position is commensurate with experience and based on UCSD’s Librarian salary scale.

UCSD offers a comprehensive benefits package including generous relocation reimbursement. Candidates applying by August 1, 2001, will be given first consideration. To apply for any of the above positions, please submit via regular mail, electronic mail, or confidential facsimile a letter of application, a résumé, and a list of three professional references to:

Library Human Resources, 0175H
University of California, San Diego
9500 Gilman Drive
La Jolla, CA 92093-0175
Telephone: (858) 534-9734
Confidential facsimile: (858) 534-8634
E-mail: libraryjobs@ucsd.edu

UCSD is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and specifically seeks candidates who can make contributions in an environment of cultural and ethnic diversity.

WEB COUNCIL CHAIR. Arizona State University West. We are seeking an innovative and energetic professional to provide leadership and direction for the management and development of the Library’s Web site. The Chair will coordinate the use of web technology to accomplish the Library’s mission and goals, attend relevant meetings to contribute to planning and decision-making, communicate and collaborate with Library units and staff as well as relevant campus and university departments and units. The Chair will supervise Web Council staff in the coordination of content development, the development of new Web-based services, the evaluation and assessment of new content and services in consultation with content providers, the development of guidelines and standards, and the daily management and maintenance of the Library’s Web site. The Web Council Chair will participate in public service activities through reference desk rotation and/or instruction. ASU West Library is implementing innovative service programs built on desktop delivery, customizable user interfaces, and information literacy. The Library makes extensive use of electronic systems and resources and spends more than $1M annually for collections and access. One of the Arizona State University campuses, ASU West combines the small campus environment with research institution resources and serves both the academic and surrounding
DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICES
Western Carolina University
(Search Extended)

Hunter Library is seeking an innovative librarian to lead its reference, instruction, electronic information access, circulation, and document delivery services. Hunter Library is aggressively meeting the opportunities and challenges that confront academic libraries today.

This position is a member of the management team that supports an environment in which delivery of quality service is the pre-eminent shared value; effectively communicates to the campus the library's vision of its role in teaching and learning; and maintains a cooperative and consultative environment within the library and the university. The Director of Public Services reports to the University Librarian.

The Director of Public Services is responsible for management of the services listed above, including strategic and tactical planning, policy development and budgeting. The Director participates in reference staffing, bibliographic instruction, and collection development.

QUALIFICATIONS: Required: ALA-accredited MLS and five years of reference experience which demonstrate a strong commitment to customer-oriented service; experience in teaching and assisting in the use of the full range of printed and electronic reference sources and online services; and the ability to work collegially and communicate effectively with internal and external constituencies. Strongly Preferred: Demonstrated understanding of the application of computer technology in reference and circulation services; demonstrated capacity to lead and manage professional and support staff; and the ability to organize and complete projects.

Located in one of the major outdoor recreational areas in the Southeast, Western Carolina University is situated between the Great Smoky Mountains and the Blue Ridge Mountains. The university is one hour from Asheville, North Carolina, and three hours from Atlanta.

This is a 12-month, faculty-rank, tenure-track position. Salary and academic rank are commensurate with qualifications. Review of applications will begin immediately. Candidates are encouraged to apply as soon as possible to receive full consideration. Position available July 1, 2001.

Please send a letter of application, résumé, and names and phone numbers of three references to:

Clarissa Fisher
Hunter Library
Western Carolina University
Cullowhee, NC 28723

Western Carolina University is one of the 16 senior institutions of the University of North Carolina and is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.

For an expanded position description, see:
http://www.wcu.edu/library/about/administration/jobs/dps.

Connect to C&RL News online
http://www.ala.org/acrl/c&rlnew2.html
CATALOGING/SYSTEMS LIBRARIAN
Westminster College

Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pennsylvania, is seeking a cataloging/systems librarian to serve as a member of the library team.

CATALOGING:
Responsible for original and complex copy cataloging on OCLC in all subjects; requires knowledge of LC classifications, LCSH, MARC, and AACR2.

SYSTEMS:
Manage the daily operations of DRA integrated library system. As such, candidate is responsible for installing hardware and software programs and upgrades, resolving system anomalies, generating reports, and planning for future system developments.

OTHER:
Candidate will participate in collection development, share evening supervisory responsibilities, provide limited reference assistance and bibliographic instruction, and supervise support staff and students.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Required: MLS from an accredited program and experience managing an integrated library system and OCLC cataloging experience. Preferred: Experience managing a DRA system. Candidate should possess excellent analytical, organizational, communication (written and oral), and time-management skills; ability to work flexibly and creatively in a rapidly changing environment; ability to interact positively and productively with library colleagues, students, faculty, and staff; and demonstrated potential for professional development and growth.

This is a full-time administrative appointment with faculty status. Salary is in the low $40s and benefits are competitive. Position will remain open until filled.

The candidate should submit the names, current addresses, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of three professional references who are knowledgeable about the candidate's qualifications for this vacancy to:

Molly Spinney, Head Librarian
Westminster College
McGill Library
319 South Market Street
New Wilmington, PA 16172

Equal opportunity employer

ASSOCIATE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIAN AND DIRECTOR OF THE ADAM AND SOPHIE GIMBEL DESIGN LIBRARY.

Parsons School Of Design, New School University, seeks candidates for the position of Associate University Librarian and Director of the Adam and Sophie Gimbel Design Library. The Gimbel Library serves the Parsons School of Design, one of the largest degree-granting colleges of art and design in the nation. The AUL/Director is a member of the library management team, and reports to the University Librarian. Responsibilities: Management of Gimbel Library operations, including personnel, budgeting, collections, services, and facilities. Other Duties: Leadership in the integration of information technologies; long range planning; writing grant proposals. A complete description is on our Web site at: http://www.newschool.edu/admin/hr/21099.htm. Qualifications: ALA-accredited MLS; undergraduate degree in art history, art, or design field; ability to provide leadership in an art library; understanding of developments in information technologies; and at least three years of appropriate experience in a comparable setting. Graduate degree in appropriate field preferred. Competitive salary and full benefits. Submit a letter of application, résumé, names, addresses, phone numbers, and e-mail address of three references to: Gail Persky, University Librarian, New School University, 65 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003. New School University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.
COORDINATOR, INFORMATION SERVICES
University of Southern California

POSITION SUMMARY: The Information Services Division of the University of Southern California seeks an innovative and dynamic Coordinator for Information Services for the Thomas and Dorothy Leavey Library, a teaching library housed in a technology-intense facility that opened in fall 1994. As a center for promoting information literacy and life-long learning skills to undergraduate students, Leavey Library is a focal point for evaluating information technologies, developing partnerships with faculty, and integrating technology into the curriculum. The Leavey Library staff includes five library faculty (including Coordinators in the areas of Instructional Services and Collection Development), three library assistants, eight professional staff, and more than 100 student assistants.

The Coordinator for Information Services will manage all aspects of Leavey Library’s two Information Commons areas, in close collaboration with other Leavey faculty and staff; will offer high-quality reference service in the Information Commons; will teach course-integrated library instruction; and will participate in collection development.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA: Founded in 1879, USC is an international center of learning, enrolling more than 28,000 undergraduate, graduate, and professional students on two campuses and offering degrees through its College of Letters, Arts, and Sciences, Graduate School and 16 professional schools. USC ranks in the top ten among private research universities in the United States in federal research and voluntary support, and is one of only four private research universities in the western United States elected to membership in the Association of American Universities, a group that represents the top one percent of the nation’s accredited universities and accounts for nearly two thirds of all federally sponsored research.

DESCRIPTION OF THE INFORMATION SERVICES DIVISION: The University Libraries are an integral part of the USC’s Information Services Division (ISD), a unified organization with the explicit goal of providing highest quality and fully integrated computer, telephone, and research services. To accomplish its goal, the ISD is structured into three primary components: Resources and Services (which includes Leavey Library), Infrastructure, and the Center for Scholarly Technology, with central support units in Administrative Services, Operations, and Advancement.

USC houses a collection of more than 2.8 million volumes, over five million microforms, three million photographs, and nearly 44,000 linear feet of manuscripts and archives. The University subscribes to more than 120 electronic databases and more than 16,000 journals in print and electronic formats in its libraries. Annually, reference transactions number close to 50,000, and approximately 1,100 instruction presentations are made to approximately 16,000 participants.

USC is a member of the Association of Research Libraries, the Center for Research Libraries, the Big 12 Plus library consortium, and the Research Libraries Group and is a founding member of the Statewide California Electronic Library Consortium. Additional information about the University of Southern California and the Information Services Division can be obtained at: www.usc.edu.

DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Reporting to the Director of the Leavey Library, the Coordinator for Information Services will manage all aspects of services in the Information Commons, an environment that combines the computers found in user labs with an integrated reference service in which librarians answer research questions and also assist users with software application questions. The incumbent will be responsible for providing effective leadership in the introduction of new services, continually evaluating services, and adopting new policies and procedures in response to the evolving needs of undergraduate students, all in a collegial and collaborative setting. The successful candidate will work cooperatively and collaboratively with librarians who manage other reference points of service within USC’s libraries and will participate actively in committees and in collaborative initiatives with other faculty and staff throughout the Information Services Division. The Coordinator will advance Leavey Library’s teaching mission by participating in an ambitious instruction program that emphasizes critical thinking skills and the integration of digital and print resources, and by working with teaching faculty members in a collaborative learning environment. As a member of the collection development team, the candidate will join in the development of policies and programs that support access to Leavey’s in-house collections, including selection, maintenance, and deselection of materials; subject areas to be determined according to the incumbent’s strengths and the library’s needs.

QUALIFICATIONS AND SKILLS: Required Qualifications: Minimum of three years of successful and progressively more responsible management in the area of information service; minimum of three years’ experience at a busy and networked reference desk; strong commitment to public service; strong commitment to undergraduate education; strong commitment to unified service, which combines traditional reference with software support, in the Information Commons environment; familiarity with emerging technologies and their potential to enhance library services; demonstrated ability to plan and implement new programs and services; ability to work effectively in a highly collaborative and integrated environment; demonstrated leadership skills, including the ability to manage change in a positive manner; appreciation of diversity and ability to work effectively in a multicultural campus and community setting; ability to develop and maintain collaborative relationships with faculty, staff, and students; experience in instruction, both one-on-one and in a classroom with groups of various sizes; excellent oral and written communication skills; professional degree from an accredited library and information science graduate program; strong record of significant professional and scholarly activities; and ability to meet USC’s standards for continuing appointment or renewable contract. Desired Qualifications: Experience with collections development, knowledge of one or more foreign languages.

APPOINTMENT RANK/SALARY: USC Librarians hold faculty status, with the option for appointment on either the Continuing Appointment track or the renewable Contract Status track. The Continuing Appointment track requires ongoing commitment to excellence in librarianship, demonstration of continuing contributions to the profession and to university and community service. The renewable Contract Status track requires an ongoing commitment to excellence in librarianship and effectiveness in meeting contract standards and provisions.

Salary and rank are commensurate with experience and qualifications. Salary and rank are commensurate with experience and qualifications. The minimum salary for this position is $45,000.

BENEFITS: The position is full time on a 12-month contract. Benefits include a choice of competitive retirement, medical, and dental plans, 22 paid vacation days per year, and tuition assistance.

TO APPLY: Review of candidates will begin September 1, 2001, and will continue until the position is filled. Candidates should submit a letter of application, résumé, and three references to:

Terry Kolasa
Director, Human Resources
PSD-114
Attention: #208, Information Services Division
University of Southern California
Los Angeles, CA 90089-1622

For more information about this position, contact Charlotte Crockett, Director, Leavey Library, at: crockett@usc.edu. EOE/M/F/D/V
TWO POSITIONS AVAILABLE

University of Missouri-Columbia

The University of Missouri-Columbia (MU) seeks qualified applicants for the positions of Monographs Cataloger and Reference Desk Coordinator/General Reference Librarian. MU was established in Columbia in 1839 and is one of the five most comprehensive universities in the nation, with over 250 degree programs. The MU Libraries belong to ARL, serve a student body of 22,000+ and a faculty of 1,800 with a collection of 3 million volumes and 6.45+ million microforms.

Monographs Cataloger

Principal duties include performing original and advanced level member cataloging primarily, but not exclusively, for monographs in science and engineering using LC subject and classification practices, OCLC, MERLIN (local III consortium), and local cataloging standards and procedures. Participates in original cataloging of major microform sets in cooperation with other catalogers. Reviews subjects for MU thesis and dissertations assigned by Library Assistants as needed. Contributes authority records to the MERLIN catalog following national and local standards. Performs other cataloging-related duties as assigned.

REQUIREMENTS: Master's degree from an ALA-accredited program in Library/Information Science, demonstrated skills in oral and written communication, and problem-solving and interpersonal relations; ability to work collegially and effectively with staff at a variety of levels; and knowledge of AACR2, MARC formats, and LC Classification and Subject Headings. Preferred qualifications include cataloging experience for science and/or engineering subjects in an academic research library setting, familiarity with library automated systems and bibliographic utilities (OCLC, INNOPAC, etc.), and knowledge of foreign languages.

MINIMUM SALARY: Librarian I: $29,500; Librarian II: $32,000 for 12 months commensurate with education and experience. Benefits include vested retirement after five years, University medical benefits package, and other normal fringe benefits including 75% tuition waiver.

SCREENING BEGINS: August 10, 2001
AVAILABLE: November 1, 2001

Reference Desk Coordinator/General Reference Librarian

Principal responsibilities include planning and coordination of Ellis Library's Reference Desk and MERLIN Desk services, collection management of general reference materials and oversight of the collection maintenance of the entire Reference collection, and administrative supervision of one office support position. Specific duties: Coordinate Reference Desk and MERLIN Desk services and activities in Ellis

As a premiere metropolitan university, SIUE is the first choice of a diverse pool of applicants and boasts a student body of more than 12,000. Applications: Review to begin August 1, 2001 and to remain open until position is filled. Send letter of application, résumé, names, addresses, and phone numbers of three references to: Jay Starratt, Dean of LIS, Lovejoy Library, SIUE Box 1063, Edwardsville, IL 62026-1063. As an affirmative action employer, SIUE offers equal employment opportunity without regard to race, color, creed or religion, age, sex, national origin, or disability. Applications from women and minority groups are especially encouraged.

CHEMISTRY-MATHEMATICS LIBRARIAN. The University of Oklahoma Library. Faculty Vacancy. Duties: Under the direction of the Director of Public Services, the Chemistry-Mathematics Librarian supervises two branches: The Chemistry-Mathematics Library and the Physics-Astronomy Library. This includes the review, development, and implementation of programs and services; the hiring, training, supervision, and evaluation of staff; the provision of specialized reference services, instruction, and research consultation; and collection development and circulation of library materials. The Chemistry-Mathematics Librarian serves as a liaison between the University Libraries and the departments of Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, and Astronomy. This position is governed by the University's policies for research or creative achievement and professional service as outlined by the Faculty Handbook at: http://www.ou.edu/provost/pronew/content/fhmenu.html. Qualifications: Required: MLS from an ALA-accredited library school; bachelor's or advanced degree in a science discipline or library or related
Library; oversee daily operations of the desks, including assisting with difficult reference questions and solving problems; prepare desk schedules and coordinate substitutions; and train personnel on desk procedures and keep staff informed of changes impacting reference/information service. Provide reference services to library users at the Ellis Reference and MERLIN Desks (may include some evening and weekend hours). Responsible for the collection development of general reference materials (interdisciplinary and basic reference tools not under the purview of subject specialists such as career and travel materials, general encyclopedias, etc.). Oversee the collection maintenance of the entire Reference collection. Serve as the Coordinator of Libraries Services for Persons with Disabilities; acts as ADA contact person for Public Services in Ellis Library. Provide library instruction, orientation, and training in the use of the library. Hire, train, and supervise one full-time office support position. Seek ways to provide innovative reference services for our in-person patrons as well as virtual patrons. Coordinate digital reference services. Provide liaison communications with campus programs that are not academic department-specific. Assist the Division Head, along with other coordinators, in the management of the Reference Division. Maintain knowledge of current and emerging technologies as they apply to reference service.

REQUIREMENTS: MLS from an ALA-accredited program, two years of successful public service experience in an academic library, and substantial knowledge of and experience with traditional and electronic reference materials and databases. Preferred qualifications include excellent interpersonal and communication skills, ability to work well with colleagues and a diverse clientele, strong commitment to helping students learn and succeed, ability to work effectively as a member of a team, and excellent organizational abilities.

MINIMUM SALARY: Librarian II: $35,000; Librarian III: $38,000 for 12 months commensurate with education and experience. Benefits include vested retirement after five years, University medical benefits package, and other normal fringe benefits including 75% tuition waiver.

SCREENING BEGINS: August 10, 2001
AVAILABLE: November 1, 2001

Send letter of application, résumé, and the names and addresses of three references to:

Leo Agnew
104 Ellis Library
University of Missouri-Columbia
Columbia, MO 65201-5149

For ADA accommodations during the application process, please call (573) 882-4701. Relay Missouri users call through (800) 735-2966.

EEO/AA; M/F/D/V
PRINCIPAL CATALOGER
Allegheny College

Pelletier Library of Allegheny College invites applications for the position of principal cataloger. The position is a full-time, 12-month appointment reporting to the Director of the Library and will be available fall 2001.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Catalog all kinds of materials in all formats and some foreign languages, including some original cataloging, using AACR2, Dewey Decimal Classification, and LC Subject Headings. Perform authority control on a database of over 400,000 bibliographic and authority records. Update cataloging and union listing of over 4,000 periodicals records (both print and electronic). Maintain the integrity of the online catalog and physical collections. Supervise one full-time assistant and four students.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: ALA-accredited MLS and two years of relevant post-MLS experience. Preferred: Experience with OCLC; Innovative Interfaces, Inc. systems; Dewey classification; supervisory experience; experience with cataloging serials; authority control. Other Requirements: Strong organizational and communication skills; ability to work under pressure, meet deadlines, solve problems, exercise good judgment; and ability to work in a team environment. Familiarity with emerging trends and issues in cataloging.

Allegheny College is a private, undergraduate, liberal arts college situated in Meadville in the rolling hills of northwestern Pennsylvania. Founded in 1815, Allegheny College has a reputation for providing quality education within a liberal arts framework. A faculty of nearly 150 offers the approximately 1,850 students both traditional and innovative instruction in a wide range of subjects in the liberal arts. Computing is a strong component of the educational experience at Allegheny.

Pelletier Library has a long and distinguished history. The original collection consisted of significant gifts from James Winthrop, William Bentley, and Isaiah Thomas. Today those collections form the basis of strong special collections. The library houses over 700,000 volumes and offers strong support of the curriculum through both print and electronic resources and a very active instruction program.

Please submit, by August 1, 2001, a letter of application, detailed résumé, and the names, addresses, and phone numbers of at least three references who can speak knowledgeably about your experience to:

Office of Human Resources
Allegheny College
520 N. Main Street
Meadville, PA 16335

Review of candidates will continue until the position is filled. Visit the Allegheny College Web site at: www.allegheny.edu.

Allegheny College is an equal opportunity employer.
PUBLIC SERVICES MANAGER
Harvard Business School

SALARY BAND/GRADE: $47,200 minimum.

Reporting to the Director of the Business Information Services Center (BISC), provides operational leadership for and management of Reference and Access Services, Document Delivery and ILL, Stacks Maintenance, and Photocopy and Microform services. Plans, develops, analyzes, evaluates, and directs the implementation of policies and procedures in order to provide seamless services to the community. Analyzes, evaluates, and redesigns workflow as needed. Hires, fires, evaluates, and develops eight FTE staff, directly supervises five; oversees hiring and supervision of two to three FTE hourly employees. Develops and monitors annual budget. Manages the administration of the circulation and course reserves modules of the library’s Voyager system. Directs the management of incoming and outgoing collection materials from two remote storage facilities. Analyzes, evaluates, and implements new technologies and management techniques to improve customer service and ensure efficient operations. Identifies, designs, and implements new services to meet customers' information needs. Provides direct reference and information services to customers as needed. Liaises with Historical Collections Department and other Harvard libraries on access, circulation, and document delivery policies and procedures. Key player in designing customer services in the new facility (groundbreaking currently targeted for Summer 2003) and for planning the interim service facility.

REQUIREMENTS:
MLS from an ALA-accredited library school and a minimum of five years' professional library experience (or equivalent) with management or supervisory responsibilities, and at least two years' experience in access services in an academic library required. Experience in providing reference/information services also required. Subject knowledge of business and/or finance desirable. Demonstrated ability to provide effective operational leadership of a complex service operation in a team-based, matrix management environment. Evidence of success in exploring and implementing new methods of delivering customer service, particularly in the electronic era, essential. Demonstrated effectiveness in analyzing and parsing workflow and service delivery problems and in designing and successfully implementing systems and procedures to resolve them. Evidence of successful management, supervision, and development of staff in a complex and rapidly changing team-based, matrix management environment. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills. Demonstrated ability to work effectively with students, faculty, and library colleagues. Ability to work cooperatively in a demanding and rapidly changing environment. Experience with automated systems, including Web technologies and tools, and understanding of how emerging electronic technologies can be applied to the instructional and research mission of the Library.

TO APPLY:
Go to http://www.hr.harvard.edu/employment/jobs.html, search for req #10190, and submit cover letter and résumé online. Or, send cover letter and résumé to:

Harvard University
Résumé Processing Center
Req #10190
11 Holyoke Street
Cambridge, MA 02138

It's never too late to advertise a job opening on the C&RL News Net!

Our online advertisements are updated weekly and read by more than 13,000 potential applicants every month!

c&rlnewsads@ala.org
(800) 545-2433, ext. 2513
www.ala.org/acrl/advert3.html