and Their Dependents, 1988–1989, by Gail Ann Schlachter and R. David Weber (240 pages, December 1987), is a guide to the nearly $1 billion in financial aid set aside for these groups by public and private agencies. More than 600 references are provided to programs sponsored by professional groups, foundations, educational associations, military/veterans organizations, and government agencies. Indexes cover program titles, sponsoring organizations, geographic coverage, subjects, and deadline dates. The volume may be ordered for $32.50 (plus $2.50 handling) from Reference Service Press, 10 Twin Dolphin Drive, Suite B-308, Redwood City, CA 94065. ISBN 0-918276-07-X.

• The Invasion of the Giant Spore, by Sandra Nyberg (19 pages, November 1987), published as SOLINET's Preservation Leaflet number 5, answers frequently asked questions about mold in libraries and archives. Common treatments for controlling mold are described and evaluated, and prevention tips are enumerated. SOLINET members may obtain the leaflet free of charge; others should send a self-addressed, 56¢-stamped envelope with their request to: SOLINET, Plaza Level, 400 Colony Square, 1201 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30361.

• Retrospective Conversion Guidelines for Libraries is a new pamphlet published by OCLC that offers planning tips, explains record conversion options, and provides a bibliography of recent publications on the topic. The pamphlet includes a summary of five conversion options and a special section of questions to ask prospective vendors. A free copy may be ordered from OCLC, Inc., 4565 Frantz Road, Dublin, OH 43017-0702.

• Stress Management in Work Settings (200 pages, 1987) is a collection of original contributions that address current issues and problems. Part I deals with organizational stress and its assessment; Part II describes aspects of stress management in the work setting; and Part III lists resources for training materials, products, and equipment. Copies may be ordered for $9.50 from Dept. 36-ZE, Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20040-0325. Stock no. 017-033-00428-5.

• A Union List of Montana Newspapers in Montana Repositories (270 pages, 1987) is the end product of Montana's participation in the U.S. Newspaper Program of the National Endowment for the Humanities. It lists the 1,121 Montana newspaper titles the project found extant, with holdings and format information, from the first territorial in 1864 to the present. Copies may be ordered for $10 (postpaid), from the Montana Historical Society Library, 225 N. Roberts St., Helena, MT 59620.

March

6–11—Rare Books: Florida Antiquarian Book Seminar, University of Florida, Gainesville. Sponsored by Book Seminars, Inc., in cooperation with AB Bookman's Weekly, the program will include a survey of the antiquarian book trade, a profile of the general dealer, the book from the perspective of the bibliographer, descriptive cataloging, pricing, authentification and forgery, acquisition sources, and libraries and collectors. Fee: $425. CEUs: 3.0. Contact: Book Seminars, Inc., 4024 N.W. 15th St., Gainesville, FL 32605; (904) 378-8144.

17–19—Composition: 39th Annual Convention of the Conference on College Composition and Communication, Clarion Hotel, St. Louis. Theme: "Language, Self, and Society." Contact: CCCCon Convention Information, National Council of Teachers of English, 1111 Kenyon Road, Urbana, IL 61801; (217) 328-3870.

April

14–16—Africana: Archives-Libraries Committee (African Studies Association), Spring Meeting, Boston University. Contact: Vicki Evalds or Gretchen Walsh, African Studies Library, Boston University, 771 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, MA 02215; (617) 353-3726.

19–23—Texas: Texas Library Association, 75th annual conference, Corpus Christi. Keynote speaker will be Liz Carpenter, author and former press secretary to Lady Bird Johnson. Contact: Patricia Smith, Texas Library Associa-
ACQUISITIONS/LIBRARIAN, SOCIAL SCIENCES. The University of Arizona is seeking a librarian to serve as bibliographer in the areas of social and behavioral sciences, e.g., anthropology, business, economics, education, geography, psychology, physical education/sports, sociology, statistical sources, and women's studies, as well as related subjects. The position is filled. Send letter of application & deadline: Send letter of application, resume and the names of three references to: Edward R. Johnson, University Librarian, 204 Edmon Low Library, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 85721. Applications received by February 15, 1988: applications will continue to be considered until the position is filled. Send letter, resume, and the names of three references to: Thomas W. Leonhardt, Dean, University Libraries, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 85721. Applications received by March 11, 1988: the University of Arizona is an Equal Employment Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer.

ASSISTANT CATALOGER, with Faculty Rank and Tenure Track. Responsible for cataloging monographs as well as serials using Dewey Decimal Classification and LC Subject Headings. Works chiefly with books in English in all subject areas. Supervises one nonprofessional. General departmental duties include assisting users at the catalog consultant service desk and revising card filing in the card catalog. Participate in implementation of an automated system. Serve on library committees as requested by the University Librarian. Master's degree from ALA-accredited library school, two years experience in library technical services, and familiarity with automated bibliographic control system (OCLC or RLIN). Good fringe benefits; 22 working days vacation and 8 holidays. Salary: $18,252 minimum for 12 months. Salary and rank dependent upon qualifications and experience. For full consideration, applications should be received by February 15, 1988. This is a nine-month, 12-day sick leave and 10 holidays. A standard package of General Information: General departmental duties include assisting users at the catalog consultant service desk and revising card filing in the card catalog. Participate in implementation of an automated system. Serve on library committees as requested by the University Librarian. Master's degree from ALA-accredited library school, two years experience in library technical services, and familiarity with automated bibliographic control system (OCLC or RLIN). Good fringe benefits; 22 working days vacation and 8 holidays. Salary: $18,252 minimum for 12 months. Salary and rank dependent upon qualifications and experience. For full consideration, applications should be received by February 15, 1988. This is a nine-month, 12-day sick leave and 10 holidays. A standard package of