Classified Advertising

NOTICE
Respondents to advertisements offering faculty "rental" and "status" are advised that these terms are ambiguous and should inquire as to benefits involved.

All advertisements submitted by institutions offering positions must include a salary range. The range should provide the applicant with an indication of the salary the institution is willing to provide for the position offered.

All advertisements for the Positions Wanted and the Positions Open classifications will be edited to exclude direct or indirect references to race, creed, color, age, and sex as conditions of employment.

Classified advertising orders copy, and cancellations, should be addressed to the Advertising Department, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago 60611, and should reach that office before the second of the month preceding publication of issue desired. Copy received after that time may be held for the next issue.

Rate for classified advertising is $1.25 per printed line. No additional charge is made for nonmember advertising.

Librarians—

How you and architects can plan a library.

This book helps librarians work with architects to plan and design university and college libraries.

The book identifies the problems involved and gives the implications of a variety of solutions. Then it provides precise guidelines to planning procedures. The emphasis is on the architect's role in the planning process and the need to coordinate a new library system and a new building. Sizing analysis stressing computer technology is discussed.
