Nominations sought for ACRL vice-president/president-elect, councilor, and director-at-large

An organization needs strong leadership to accomplish its goals. ACRL is no exception. As a companion activity to strategic planning, the ACRL Board reviewed the process and procedures for developing an election slate, and will be enacting some changes for the 2007 elections.

The Nominations Committee has been renamed Leadership Recruitment and Nominations to reflect its charge to take a more active role in encouraging and vetting candidates for office. In order to increase and broaden the scope of its pool of candidates, the committee encourages members to nominate themselves or others to run for the position of ACRL vice-president/president-elect, ACRL councilor, or ACRL director-at-large in the 2007 elections.

To nominate an individual or to self-nominate, send the nominee’s name and institution to: Tyrone Cannon, Chair, LNRC, University of San Francisco, 2130 Fulton St., Gleeson Library-Geschke Center, San Francisco, CA 94117-1080, e-mail: kannont@usfca.edu.

Once nominated, individuals will need to submit a two-page curriculum vita or résumé (if self-nominating, you may include these materials with your nomination). The Leadership Recruitment and Nominations Committee will request statements of interest from selected individuals prior to developing a slate of candidates. Descriptions of the positions can be found in the ACRL Bylaws, available online at: www.ala.org/ala/acrl/aboutacrl/resourcesforwork/acrlbylaws/acrlbylaws.htm. The deadline for nominations is May 1, 2006.
